A godly and true expository on Televised Programs
[Source: BT Magazine Staff Writer Oneil McQuick]

Prologue

It might also seems that fact and fiction needs to be separated, but if an alleged fiction is in this article, it means that it is a fact masked as fiction to hide that fact and even deceive you. History (fact) becomes legend and legend becomes fiction. Sometimes it is crafted subliminally to speak to or entertain those who can "view it" or know what it is really talking about – underground or undertone society. But regardless of such benefits, I can't uphold to it because such are unstable and become unsound and hence further erode while initially seem beneficial. On the other hand, the scriptures are sound and its effect cannot be altered throughout the years. Not only that, it is a gauge to the unstableness of the teaching on Satanism or current demonology. For the scripture tells us, "Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ" (2 Cor 10:5).

"Watch That T.V"

At the start of the summer of 2003 I made it a special duty to watch a few Media Programs to see the embedded programming behind it. Media programs can be transmitted or televised through the TV, DVDs, Video Cassettes, Cinemas, Computers, Palm Pilots, Cell Phones, PSP and other hand held devices. The most common Media programs are Movies. Not that the theatrical art is evil but it is greatly used for evil; to the point that it has become all evil (99.9%) under the pretext of entertainment and education. For instance, an instrument used to carve sculptures isn't evil, but it is a weapon in the hands of a murderer. Television is a weapon against the soul or more precisely, this is mind control in its subtlest form; that's why T.V shows are called programs. It is meant to program you to a way of thinking. If the devil controls the thought process or mind, he's control you. It's a simply process God instructed the Israelites to use, recorded here, "And these words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart: And thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up. And thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thine hand, and they shall be as frontlets between thine eyes" (Due 6:6-8). In Catholicism this is called rote and catechism, as taught by my sixth-form History teacher. But it becomes bad when what is instructed is incorrect, satanic, not the word of God and leave no room for application to all (commandments of men). The mass media thrive on this godly principle and the satanic business tycoons control it, therefore, most often evil control the mass media. It then becomes inevitable that evil would flood the airways with deception under the guise of entertainment and education. Remember, satan is not coming up to us and present evil as evil; he's much smarter than that. That's the reason bible prophecy states that "he…deceive the nations…" (Rev 20:3); a deception is usually hidden, which is the meaning of the word occult. Cartoons/animation are best used because children are the best to program. As Hitler once 'related', give me a generation under 20 and I'll control the world. That's why this generation grew up on Television, forming a well-programmed mind for a paganistic "great falling away" New World Order conspiracy people. That's why the subheading is "watch that T.V" in quotations; in other words, be careful of this evil called Television and the programs it outputs. Here are just a few:

Andromeda

August 24, 2003 I watched 2 sci-fi series, so happen I was eating late and the T.V was on. I don't know if these shows come on that late regularly, but probably someone wanted me to see them. The shows were Andromeda and another called Star Hunter, first I was seeing the latter.

In Greek mythology (devils history) Andromeda was the daughter of an Ethiopian Queen and King, but the literal translation means, "ruler of men" says Geoffrey Cornelius in The Starlore Handbook found on a website October 2003. So already it has devilish roots.

Andromeda is a Star Trek type out of space film. But this episode is so satanically real I was really startled. It was called, "Vault of the Heavens." What had happen was that the ship's captain had gotten a distress call from a planet's moon. Upon arrival it was an ambush and some spirit type creatures captured them. These creatures had no ethnic descent but was white as wool, bright as lighting or cellulite as water. But they had the ability to form as humans with skin and everything, for a while. Apparently it was a multitude of them and they needed to procreate, as they do periodically or suffer extinction; in other words, they needed a host to live in or suffer what the Queen says we call "death." Much like how Christ says when the spirit is gone out of a man it seek a place and findeth none returns to the former host (Lk 11:24); in other words, citing the need for spirits to have a body to live in whilst dwelling in a different atmosphere. So they captured the captain of the Andromeda in order to mate with him and they all would become humans; as the Queen said that whomever she mates with that's the species they become. My thought was how were they going to do this as even the Captain asked and later the ship's doctor couldn't figure it out. They kissed, he laid down with her on top, she climaxes (breaking up; going between light and solid) and then vanishes. The captain clothes was on him whilst this was done and he's still wondering what happened. Next you know when they left the moon planet, the ship's scan showed that the place was flooded with humans. At first he was unwilling because she tied him down with her magic to rape him, smoothly saying she has no other choice because no other life form was around for light years away. He had managed to slighter out then agreed because she sweet talked him and showed him how they would be extinct without the pro-creation.

I was startled when I watched it because this was exactly what happened in Genesis 6:4 and has continued since, that's why God could have said, "for that he [devils] also is flesh" (Gen 6:3). In other words, devils or fallen angels or evil spirits procreated as humans. Genesis 6:4 told us that the Sons of God (fallen angels) saw the daughters of men and came unto them or translated, have sex. Spirits don't have reproductive organs like humans, so what they did is genetically mutate as humans or procreate – like how "Andromeda" puts it, though the human in this case was a man. In other words, this episode is enticing, upholding and indirectly deceiving the public as to the reality of extraterrestrial human mating – DEVILRY. As stated by Gen. 6:4, God despises this corruption and they'll suffer the Lake of fire for it. Also, note that they forcible rape humans to procreate and for enjoyment or torment. These bastards are doing the same thing today. I could give detail experience of being raped by spirits and remember occurrences where People wrote Pastors in newspaper columns to give their dreaded experience of being raped by Ghosts or "duppy". I thought that was so stupid and whacked, until one night on my bed I felt this presence over me and my Penis began to burn and enlarge rapidly, to the point that the only way to relieve the pain was to fly my pants for it to touch nothing, because the slightest contact hurt. I didn't want to because I felt this presence over me, but I had to because I felt as if my Penis would explode if I didn't free it. I'm not saying some fallen angel wanted to procreate, but it's obvious it wanted something sexual. Dead people are bound in a holding place (Lk 16:19-31), so the only beings that fool people that they are ghosts are fallen angels and their human props. When the fallen angel has a body (or a human prop does it) they could astral project – spirit leaving the body – witches travel that way at nights. This happened to me a few times. Many preachers who deal in warfare specifically, call them incubus and succubus. But the truth is incubus and succubus can't be everywhere at the same time, so it is obvious that any spirit can do this, even the ones that live in your household as relatives. Then they are people stupid enough to entertain this and some go as far as to want it, when I was living in the islands 1999 I read a column "Tell me Pastor" and one person writing said she liked it; that is, spirits having intercourse with her. Then in 2003 at a publix on Sample Rd, Coral Springs, Fl, I read in another paper where a woman was advertising that she wants to have an Alien baby. She said, "I'm tired of human men." Not knowing that Aliens are fallen Angels' contraption and therefore would be having a devil's baby.

Port Charles The Gift

(or some soap opera I saw with that flashed at the bottom, could be 'One life to live'*)

As with Ancient times under the pretext of Greek Mythology, these fallen angels are coming to the forefront again. In fact, one movie called "Underworld" (theater or DVD released fall 2003) says, "we have been fighting for centuries blind to the eyes of humans but now…" (Paraphrased). It's a Werewolf and Vampire movie that is more sensitive than the ones in the pass, because it shows whom these beasts really are – fallen angels in human form mutated. By being in flesh and transforming when they feel (also, they're human props can do the same) it is inevitable not to have human feelings of sexual needs and platonic communication. I saw this epitomize in an episode of Buffy the Vampire slayer sometime August, probably a rerun. Another girl had taken over command, after seeing "The One" (or "The First") she was then comforted by her other male slayer friend. They then had sex, but it was like a routine she said, "it has been a while." Then two other female members of their house or gang went at it in another room. I then pondered, if Fallen Angels (spirits) have no reproductive organ and are neither male nor female then are these evil ones homosexuals? Meaning, if two spirits – Fallen Angels – are close or good friends before human incarnation, but when they entered humanity they ended up with the same sex or can change at will, then having sex with the same sex (homosexuals) could have been started by them. Remember, when God gave the homosexuals Laws in Leviticus 18-20, homosexuality wasn't a new thing but he made plain it that, "for in all these the nations are defiled which I cast out before you" (Lev 18:24). These nations or people were Fallen Angels with their off springs. Deuteronomy chapter 2 from the Bible clearly stated that "these … nations … I cast out before you" were giants, also seen back in Gen 6:4 when fallen angels first became flesh, they were giants. That's why God probably had Israel and other nations at the time annihilate them for their genetic corruption (Due 2 and 3). Even Joshua 11:21-22 states, “And at that time came Joshua, and cut off the Anakims from the mountains…Joshua destroyed them utterly with their cities. There was none of the Anakims left in the land.” That was over 31 kings and kingdoms in the middles east that they possessed. That is, these Anakims or sons of Anak, giants, fallen angel corruption as this verse states, “And there we saw the giants, the sons of Anak, which come of the giants” (Num 13:33). Here’s some interesting info:

47 inch Human Femur

In the late 1950s, during road construction in south-east Turkey in the Euphrates Valley, many tombs containing the remains of Giants were uncovered.
At two sites the leg bones were measured to be about 120 cms "47.24 inches".
Joe Taylor, Director of the Mt. BLANCO FOSSIL MUSEUM in Crosbyton, Texas, was commissioned to sculpt this anatomically correct, and to scale, human femur.
This "Giant" stood some 14-16 feet tall, and had 20-22 inch long feet.
His or Her finger tips, with arms to their sides, would be about 6 feet above the ground.
The Biblical record, in Deuteronomy 3:11 states that the Iron Bed of Og, King of Bashan was 9 cubits by 4 cubits or approximately 14 feet long by 6 feet wide!

GENESIS 6:4
There were Nephilim (Giants) in the earth in those days; and also after that when the sons of God (Angels?) came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown.

From before the flood until now they haven't ceased to do this and as the days of Noah were so shall these days be. Somehow they have learnt to manipulate the human genes as not to appear as giants, but still existing amongst us with other hidden mutate forms – vampires, slayers, werewolves, supermen and others, as portrait in these modern films. Nevertheless, some of these names (e.g. vampire) are derived from things that are far from the meaning associated with it or its origins.

Port Charles the gift, affectionately called, is the human typification of this fleshly corruption. Of all the things my eyes glanced at on the television I had to see an actual "Soap Opera" about outright Fallen Angels relationships. I could hardly believe this. Shows like Buffy, Angel, Blade and others are action series which can fit into the mainstream television delusion, but an actual love story drama about these fallen one under the guise of slayers, vampires, werewolves and other names; showing love, wanting love and family, basically doing everything and experiencing everything humans do under the banner Soap Opera. Greek Mythology come alive! Extremely deceptive, because devils come only "to steal, and to kill, and to destroy" (John 10:10) and even the word slayer means murderer. Even worse, innocent humans are mutated in their love battles. Much like the allege myth about hermaphrodite, where a fallen one name Aphrodite merged with a human who it fell in love with as not to have it escape out of it's love lock. That's why the term hermaphrodite is used for people born with two sexual genitals – male and female.

I haven't watched another episode of Port Charles the Gift, I think it comes on ABC, but it is obvious that the hidden evil Super Men (Fallen Angels in Flesh) of the world want to stop being Clark Kent and show the world who they are, starting subtly. It might seem far-fetched but with Television programming anything seems possible.

X-Men

Paul taught us, "For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord" (Rom 8:39). Paul didn't rule out the fact that they are other creatures not mentioned in this verse and unknown to most people. "Any other creature" here was placed with "angels," "principalities" and "powers," so he meant intelligent creatures and not creatures like lizard, horses or monkeys.

Mutants can be described as humans with abnormalities, most often super-humans. Shockingly enough, mutants have always been around. They are either satantists, fallen angels in flesh or scientific experiment on men by either a scientist or a scientist and a devil. More than often it is devilry and satanism. Here are quotes from a former Satanist to prove that:

> "A month after my chairmanship, a meeting was called. We attended that meeting as birds, cats and snakes."
> "I had now become a part and parcel of the spirit world and could [go] at will to any part of the world [Teleport]."
> "She took me to a corner of the barbeach, used something like a belt and tied around us and immediately a force came from behind and pushed us into the sea. We started flying on the surface of the water and straight to the ocean... these happened in my physical form!"
> "One night, I woke up in the dead of the night and found a boa-constrictor beside me. I wanted to shout but could not. Some nights I would wake up to see Alice's body as transparent as a cellophane bag. Some nights, she would disappear and reappear."

"I would like to give a testimony of a minister. When he went on his knees there would be confusion among us. We therefore sent these girls to him. But this man would even feed them but would refuse to be enticed... I then changed to a woman and went to him and by words and actions tried to entice him but he was adamant." (E. Eni)

Now, aren't these characteristic of being a mutant? In fact, he said all Satanists at his level had to give up being fully human to become part spirit; whereby they could fly (bodily), change to male or female (morph), change to animals, teleport, become like shadows and many other mutant stuff. Some shows like X-men, mutant X and some marvel comics super-heroes are then only glorifying satantists and subtly making us passive to them or be enticed. They are enemies of God and agents to target born again believers, as seen with the last quote above about changing into a woman. If they are humans who were blindly mutated by someone they'll think they are doing good; this quote from the series "Mutant X" typifies this, "we fight for a real world that don't even know we exists". Most real satanists are aggressively known for doing this, by forcefully inducting relatives and friends into satanism.

This attempt to empower humanity is God's intension in the long run or from the beginning. Man was probably made to live in our earth suits (flesh) forever and manipulate it at will; for instance, moleculization, as seen with Jesus walking through the wall in flesh (John 20:26). Or even reconstruct it if it decays, as seen with his resurrection. However, all this, along with the essential relationship with God was lost.

Jesus himself said so, "they [humans] which shall be accounted worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead … they are equal unto the angels" (Lk 20:35-36); in other words, equal in nature to angels – "flying," going through walls and other stuff. However, anything outside of God is evil, devilry and eternally harmful. Surprisingly enough while watching X-men the movie for the first time in 2003 I heard magneto with similar acclaims. He took the senator (human) and exposed him to radiation in order to mutate him, but what he said in his speech before branding the radioactive machine was startling; he said that "God was too slow" in evolving man. So even satan, through "Hollywood", recognizes God's intension for us and in mockery, mimicry, control and deceit has attempted to upgrade many human beings who are Satanists; and others too.

If a mutant "might" look like this, they are either Satanists who got stuck in a morphing process; or more commonly, devils and/with scientists experimenting with human embryo. As we advance in technology we will have more abnormalities because of radiation, but again this is a satanic plot; and some honest people would have become victims of mutation. When I wrote this in the newsletter, X-men 2 had just been released that weekend and many young people flocked the theater to be deceived. A month later, the Incredible Hulk was released, and who could forget the Box Office recording breaking film, Spider-Man, in 2002. Though these movies seem innocent, to the point that an ardent follower of Christ like myself is greatly enticed to watch them, they are laden with underline satanic themes to brainwash the public. Pray for your children and families, because "the days are evil."

My question exactly, how on God's green earth are the unsaved going to get the gospel if we the Christians don't go and bring it to them. You don't even have to go far, they are at your work place, community, home, etc. Saints, stop warming the pews and get out and shine for Christ and exert some love to a fallen humanity. Of such, if you need guidance, L.I.M has created a prototype evangelism program that all ministries or individual can use; along with materials. It is called Men of War. Sixth Sense

The show "Sixth Sense", starring Bruce Willis (a doctor), gives a most deceptive message to viewers and epitomizes what most spirit mediums go through. What this show does is teach the viewers who have familiar spirits attached to them to accept them and the insight/instruction they give – making the person a spirit medium (psychic, shaman, gypsy, etc.). This is done through emotional appeal and a fake sense that they're helping someone. The movie starts with an adult killing himself, because even though he got treatment from Willis it didn't help, showing the outcome of not following them or their leading. This also show that a natural doctor cannot help them, which is true, because this calls for spiritual intervention by them that are authorize spiritually (Born again). Then it ends up with Bruce Willis counseling a young boy with similar problems. His counsel, unlike the first, was to now accept the spirits. Then it culminates with the boy solving a "would be" murder and giving messages from his dead grandmother to his mother – where she breaks down in tears. With such a well crafted film, anyone would be fooled into thinking people who do this are actually speaking with dead people, legitimately helping someone or that they themselves are gifted, if it happens to them. Other shows and series help this theme along greatly; example, "Thru Calling," "Yu-Gi-oh" and others. But God will speak about this, "There shall not be found among you … a consulter with familiar spirits… For all that do these things are an abomination [disgusting] unto the LORD" (Due 18:10-12). He earlier said, "Regard not them that have familiar spirits …to be defiled by them: I am the LORD your God" (Lev 19:31).

Yu-Gi-oh

This, like Sixth Sense, sensitizes the youngsters to want to have familiar spirits and that it is okay. I've only watch this thrice in length. But one episode that I watched clearly showed the evil behind the whole thing – co-habitation of and use of familiar spirits. Yu-Gi-oh does holographic duels with others in this card game. But what helps him to win is this ancient Egyptian spirit that lives in him. It talks to him and advise him on almost all matters. This particular episode that I watched created a story where "the spirit," as he is called, was looking for his Egyptian identity. It so happened that Yu-Gi-oh had to let him take over his body fully to walk about in this present world, as advised by his female friend. It so happened that "the spirit" lives inside Yu-Gi-oh's head but only speaks to him and was afraid to come out – yeah right so it walked about and even went dancing and gaming with Yu-Gi-oh's female acquaintance. When I watched that I became so disheartened and sighted greatly. I just could not believe what they were teaching the kids. This is a great upgrade of familiar spirit association in Pokemon (pocket demon) or Digimon ("digital demon"). Then guess what? The makers of Yu-Gi-oh have a new cartoon deception that is even worse that came out the summer of 2003. It is called "Shaman King." Notice the name, shaman as in Witch doctor; the word processor synonym says, "Spiritualist, Medium." The theme of this cartoon is that the person who is best at controlling spirits – not the typification of it in Yu-Gi-oh's holographic card monsters, but they said actual spirits – will become shaman king. They could have just said "Champion Witch." According to 4kidsentertainment.com, "Shaman King made its Fox Box debut in fall 2003. Brought to the U.S by the same team that introduced 'Yu-Gi-oh' – TV Tokyo and 4 kids Entertainment. Introduced in 1998 in Japan, Shaman King has sold over 20 million comic books and 165 million trading cards in Japan; the No. 1 selling comic magazine in Japan. Toys, trading cards, video games schedule to roll out in the U.S in 2004." All anime imports are full of this, seeing that they come from a culture who reverences more than one deity (devils, fallen angels, evil spirits).

If you're a parent do not let your children watch these so-called harmless entertainments. It's a program, and according to Mind Control thesis, a program is meant to control the person by controlling their minds. In other words, your whole thought process is controlled, what you deemed bad or good, etc. In this case, "spiritism," spirit guides and demonology is okay. Obviously slipping this generation into outright paganistic devilry, unknowingly. Again, God will speak about this, "There shall not be found among you any one … that useth divination, or an observer of times, or an enchanter, or a witch, Or a charmer, or a consulter with familiar spirits, or a wizard, or a necromancer. For all that do these things are an abomination unto the LORD" (Due 18:10-12).

Captain Planet and the Planeteers

If you're a cartoon watcher as I was you would love Captain Planet, but like all the deceptions, I found out it too is more deceptive than I thought; under the guise of 'good,' it has us giving reverence to a fallen Angel name Gaia, represented as Mother Earth throughout History. Paul Nugent, a church friend of mine gave me a book sometime ago in 2002 and it shed some light on the cartoon Captain Planet. It's now the end of summer 2003 and thank God he didn't reclaim it, because I recently read this in it (The World's Last Dictator): "We all have one mother, Gaia, preserving her is the highest good. This is my religion" (Barbara Kelly, founder of 'Save our Eco Systems').

Captain planet is one of the leading productions on television that portrays Gaia, an earth goddess who gives to some children super powers. Of course, Ted Turner is the endorser of it, an outright pagan. Reader Digest described Captain Planet's New Age delusion by Ted Turner as 'the slickest, political propaganda piece ever aimed at America's young people, promoting a leftist agenda.' Many don't even know that this Gaia spirit is a devil; upheld even in Wicca circles.

In the book somewhere it had said that Jose Aquellas, some high-level New Ager organized a convention of theirs, encompassing a link of 2 billion people. In the background he requested 114,000 persons involved in New Ageism to become conjugal brides of Satan. In other words, to bring Satan back to Gaia, so that mother earth could be healed. The same occurrence took place on the first Earth day of 1990, which was backed by Hollywood's 'stars'. Did you know the UN sanctioned this as the official day of prayer?

Another film that depicts the Gaia New Age delusion is "Final Fantasy: The Spirits Within." I hadn't known this Gaia spirit was this popular until I watched this film. It is another spy vs. spy contraption to cause you to choose between evil and evil; the blue spirit from within the earth and the reddish spirits from outer space. The blue spirit, Gaia, is another new age ploy of satan to have you caught up in demonology and even worship of a devil, Gaia; as previously seen. The reddish alien spirits which Aki Ross said fell from another planet and are just angry 'because because'…are just representatives of fallen angels who after the war in heaven were kicked to earth (Rev 12). Again, none of this will be known, but persons would have left the theater with a new awareness of Gaia; amongst other evils. Notice these statements by Aki Ross, the star of Final Fantasy, "All spirits are born of Gaia, each spirit dies and goes back to Gaia" and she even said she wasn't dying but returning to Gaia. What outrage against truth! What a lie that has seeped into the minds of the viewers! What deception has unleashed into the theaters unawares. "God is a spirit" (John 4:24) and the "Father of spirits" (Heb 12:9), in fact his word clearly states that he is "the God of the spirits of all flesh" (Num 16:22). So where does this spirit comes from claiming to be what God is, even opting to say everyone is born of her rather than God? Only another devil and its deception. So it is with 99.9% of all movies, "Neither give place to the devil" (Eph 4:27).

These same underline fallen angels, new ageist agenda is laden in many cartoons, like Action Man, Defenders of The Earth, He-Man, Dragon Tales, Knights of the Zodiac, Super Friends, Atlantis: The Lost Empire and countless others. But can you easily detect them? Simply train your child and yourself to avoid television.

Harry Potter (The Sorcerer's Stone)

Since the plague of the Harry Potter's books, it has since "evolved" into movies. I am not saying things shown in Harry Potter are not true, but they are out of bounds for several reasons, to the point that God once said, "Thou shalt not suffer a witch to live" (Ex 22:18). Another verse typified why, "The secret things belong unto the LORD our God: but those things which are revealed [his word] belong unto us and to our children for ever, that we may do all the words of this law" (Due 29:29). That's why the Apostle Paul said some things are unlawful to utter (2 Cor 12:4).

Nevertheless, we born again Christians have the spirit that prophesieth and thus enabled to attain to God's secrets and do real wonders (Mark 16:16, 1 Cor 12-14). However, not entangled in devilry that is shown in the Potter films.

Harry Potter is an outright abomination and evil in the sight of God, which I could have told you without watching the movie. But now watching the movie sometime in September 2003 I found out that it will definitely not seems that way and even seems beneficial or inspirational. For instance, I watch this film with my guards down and even being an ardent believer, I was really enticed by the film. Go Harry, you're the seeker, Get that ball! Yeah, Harry's team has won! Oh, poor Harry, miss treated by his relatives! Why that little, taking Harry's mail! Yeah his father's friend came and gave him the mail and taught that little spoil kid a lesson! Go Harry, you're the chosen one! Go Harry beat that evil wizard! Being so enthralled in the movie I can clearly see why any youngster would say, "I want to be a wizard like Harry" or "all wizards aren't bad." Moreover, with the experience that Harry had at Hog Wart and the excitement of it, any youngster would do anything to achieve it – even disenfranchising from their household.

If I was so caught up in this film, imagine the poor souls without the Holy Ghost, Non-Christian parents, Halloween practioners, out casts and anyone without godly tutelage. That's why T.V programming is the best deception of the enemy. It uses psychological appeal, empathy, sympathy and other invisible stimuli's of the human being to actually make you do something you ought not (especially if you know the truth) or believe in something that is wrong. T.V deception is the real witchcraft.

It's after watching Harry Potter that I realized that blasting a non-believer violently with the truth wont do much help, because of what they've been led to believe or programmed to "value" certain things. No wonder the scripture said, "In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves" (2 Tim 2:25).

But just to show you that the Harry Potter scenario is real devilry and there is no such thing as good wizards or good magic, but all are an abomination unto the Lord (Due 18:11, Lev 19:31, Lev 20:6, 27) take this quote from a former wizard:

> "Despite all these powers in me, I was not yet qualified to meet with [satan] but only qualified to be his agent. All the same I was satisfied that I now had powers and could face, challenge and destroy things at will."
> "I HAD NO HUMAN FEELINGS OR MERCY IN MY HEART ANY LONGER. I went into operation immediately and DESTROYED FIVE DUPLEX at a go. They all sunk inside the ground with all its inhabitants. This happened in Lagos in August 1982. The contractor was held responsible for not laying a good foundation and he paid dearly for it. A LOT OF DESTRUCTIONS HAPPENING IN THE WORLD TODAY ARE NOT MAN MADE. The devil's duty is to steal, kill and destroy."
> "I destroyed lives to the extend that [satan] became very pleased and made me CHAIRMAN OF THE WIZARDS. A month after my chairmanship, a meeting was called. We attended that meeting as birds, cats and snakes."
> "We then schedules to hold an AFRICAN WIZARD CONFERENCE IN 1983. We published it in all dailies and all the public media. All the forces of darkness were mobilized and we were very confident nothing was going to interrupt this meeting. In fact, everything was well planned and there was no loophole. Suddenly, THE CHRISTIANS IN NIGERIA WENT INTO PRAYERS AND PRAISES UNTO THEIR GOD AND ALL OUR PLANS WERE SHATTERED. As a result, the witches and wizards conference could not hold in Nigeria."

I could give more of others, but it is obvious once again that satan has masterminded a film or "craze" to entice this generation into demonology and wickedness through subtly – making you appreciate, want and accept devilry at its core. From the mere fact God said, "thou shalt not suffer a witch to live," should clearly tell his stances on witchcraft and wizardry. He himself said, "There shall not be found among you any one that maketh his son or his daughter to pass through the fire, or that useth divination, or an observer of times, or an enchanter, or a witch, Or a charmer, or a consulter with familiar spirits, or a wizard, or a necromancer. For all that do these things are an abomination unto the LORD" (Due 18:10-12).

The same exact magic wizard delusion is done through other noted films, like Dungeons and Dragons, Lord of Ring, The wizard of Oz, Charmed, Teen Witch, The Wizard, Magic: Gathering, The Never Ending Story and many others! Some of these I haven't watched. My prayer is that you're not fooled.

Star Wars

I grew up on things like Star Wars, I remember having a complete sheet set on my bed as child, plus the toys. With the reemergence of it – Episodes 1-6 and my Christian conversion I got to find out some of the deception it holds. I dealt with most of them earlier, the alien delusions, cloning, Artificial Intelligence and several others. But take this quote from the makers themselves:

> "Revealing himself to be Yoda, the Jedi Master began Luke's training in earnest. Telekinetic challenges, challenges of the will and body, more challenges than Luke had ever faced before helped mold the reckless youth into a Jedi. Still, Luke failed to "unlearn" his preconceptions. When asked to raise his sunken starfighter from the Dagobah swamps with the power of his mind alone, he responded he would try. "No," scolded Yoda. "Do, or do not. There is no try." Luke did not believe the Force could lift such a massive object. He was proven wrong when Yoda telekinetically lifted the X-wing fighter and placed it on dry land. Again, Luke was incredulous – he did not believe; that is why he failed.
> When Yoda taught Luke how to "farsee" into the future, a chilling vision of his friends in danger caused the young Skywalker to abandon his training. Luke promised he would return, and rocketed off to rescue his friends. In the end, Luke failed, having to be rescued himself. Yoda feared all would be lost in the effort to stop Vader and the Emperor.
> About a year later, Luke did return to conclude his training. Having faced the hardship of confrontation with Vader, and having learned that Vader was actually his father, Luke learned from Yoda that his training was complete. In Luke's absence, Yoda had become quite ill. As he lay dying, Yoda shed some light on Luke's distant past: there was another Skywalker. Yoda died shortly thereafter, disappearing as his body became one with the Force [A TYPE OF GAIA].
> Luke would learn that Leia Organa was his sister, and he would also reclaim his father from the dark side. At the celebration after the Battle of Endor, Luke saw the specter of Yoda, joined by ghostly images of Obi-Wan Kenobi, and Anakin Skywalker, his father, who had died in the light" (Starwars.com).

In other words, Star Wars isn't just about advanced technologies but mingled with ancient metaphysics, yoga, meditation, mysticism, Reiki, the Upanishads, and Vedanta; in other words, paganism, devilry and witchcraft is masked under a supposedly fictional saga. Do you know how many kids out there now believe in the force? I myself keep remembering the line "the force be with you;" after watching this film. Why? Because it's a program and that's what programs do, alter your thought, belief system and thus eternal state without you knowing. Though this might not be relating to Star Wars, the Bible did say this about the Anti-Christ, "Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers…for he shall magnify himself above all. But in his estate shall he honour the God of forces: and a god whom his fathers knew not" (Dan 11:38).

Notice I highlighted three quotes from the makers of Star Wars above: 1. "Telekinetic challenges" 2. " 'farsee' into the future" and 3. "ghostly images."

> Telekinetic or "Psychokinesis (PK) – sometimes referred to as telekinesis or mind over matter – is the ability to move things or otherwise affect the property of things with the power of the mind. Of psychic abilities, true psychokinesis is one of the rarest. Few have been able to demonstrate this ability, and even those demonstrations are highly contested by the skeptics" (Stephen Wagner). One psychic website I went to had a product advertising telekinesis, "Develop your psychic energy, & your ability to focus & send it. Instructions included for using this carefully balanced, light-weight instrument to increase your telekinetic skills." Therefore, "Telekinesis is the psychic ability that involves the ability to move objects, living beings, things and energies with your mind or spirit."

2. To " 'farsee' into the future " literally means doing what psychics do, by the evil spirits that give them insight though some don't know it. In other words, Star Wars is enticing your kids to be little psychics or use evil divinations.

Ghostly Images, as previously discussed, are evil spirits pretending to be somebody and thus the one in contact with Ghosts are in contact with evil spirits or more commonly, Fallen Angels. Notice that Luke's father "had died in the light." What is light? There is only one light, Jesus Christ and the salvation he gives. That's why the scripture said, "In him was life; and the life was the light of men" (John 1:4). No wonder he could have said, "I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me (John 14:6). Not by any other means or force.

Not that all the things in the occult are evil in and of themselves but should only be done by the Spirit of God. So much so that the word of God encourages us to " 'farsee' into the future." Where? It said, "covet to prophesy" (1 Cor 14:39); but not through metaphysics. This is one of the first outer space technologically advanced movies that uses so-called ancient primitive methods of metaphysics. Nicely done deception! Let the Spirit of God be with you!

The Last book that you'll ever read to know for a fact that you and others are saved. It is not feelings, fanaticisms or flamboyant church-ianity; it must be based on the rightly divided word of God or else....Truth cannot be suppressed change is inevitable. The book is:

'Thought provoking'

'Man's theology has really missed the mark'

'Finally, the answer to the question, What must I do to be save'

'The questions aroused have long needed to be answered'

Or, in the words of some:

"He analyzes the pitfalls of religious denominational dogmas and presents truth as the alternative."

"A master piece!"

"The book is fantastic …There are so many things I wasn't aware of and I am glad I am getting to understand them now."

WHAT DO YOU BELIEVE???

Crouching Tiger, Hidden Dragon

To tell the truth, this is one of the best Martial Arts Karate films I've ever seen and when I was young and unsaved I saw a lot, I mean a lot. This particular karate film was inspired by a book Ang lee, the director, read. It is hard to talk against martial arts because it is already woven into mainstream life and existed from a previous culture. However, our society and culture is so drenched in demonology under the pretext of tolerance that many are fallen away. In "Crouching Tiger, Hidden Dragon," we see that karate movies have moved from pure kickboxing to love stories; in other words, emotional appeal is woven into this movie, making it impossible for anyone not to be deceived. At one point, Li Mu Bai (Chow Yun Fat) upon death spoke of going to heaven when he dies or being a ghost by the side of his female friend, Michelle Yeow. The two notions are incorrect, yet will be embedded in the minds of the viewers. Unless you're born again you're not going to paradise and when you die you're not going to see the earth's surface anymore (Lk 16:20-31); ghosts are contraptions of fallen angels. Emotional appeal is not the only thing used, but appeal to sociological issues – they made this film center around some of the so-called struggles women face (feminism) rather than pure fighting, revenge or killing. Jade Fox became Jade Fox because she was refused to study "Wudan" (or Wuxia), a type of martial arts for only men. The new holder of the Green Destiny Sword, Zhang Ziyi (Jen Yu), is a young female that literally broke the barrier of the long line of male bearers. The former owner and martial expert Li Mu Bai finally concluded that she should be the first woman to study "Wudan." When she fought the men in the village as a new comer to this lifestyle, she was startled by their long-wind aliases. However, upon disgracing these men in battle she finally gave herself a name with "goddess" in it – another new ageist feminism delusion as against Proverbs 31. In other words, for you to be hooked on the evils of this film (Martial Arts, feminism, etc) emotional and sociological appeal was used and will exist in most modern films today.

Crouching Tiger, Hidden Dragon and all karate films (Enter the Dragon, The Crow, Dragon Ball Z, Drunken Master, Karate Kid, the Three Ninjas and lots more) entices the viewers to appreciate, want and accept the Martial Arts. What is wrong with that, you might ask? You cannot separate the "arts" from the religion. If you're a practioner of the 'arts', you're a practioner of the religion. The religions of Hinduism, Taoism, Buddhism and others that worship statues, men and hold a lot of fallacy and abomination unto the Lord. In fact, Ang lee himself said on the DVD sleeve borrowed from my cousin, "the secret martial arts are passed down over time in the great Taoist school of training and of thought." Taoist comes from Taoism which is a religion in China and "a form of religion dealing with deities and spirits, magic and soothsaying…it was organized with temples, cult, priests, and monasteries…" (The Time Almanac, 1998). The deities and spirit it speak of are Fallen Angels or commonly called devils. The 1998 Almanac went further to say, "Central are the word Tao, which means way or path and, in a deeper sense, signifies the principle that underlines reality of this world…" Do you see the big picture now; this film and others like it are subtly pushing a pagan religion on you. Notice how it comes out when Michelle Lo said to Zhang Ziyi, "what path you choose in this life be true to yourself." She said this after loosing Li Mu Bai to death after being in love with him for years. In other words, you are the master of your own domain, choose a path regardless of the consequences; go fornicate it is your path, go kill a man it is your path, go bomb up building it is your path. God's words totally contradict this path theology when it says, "walk in the ways of thine heart, and in the sight of thine eyes: but know thou, that for all these things God will bring thee into judgment" (Ecc 11:9). Need I say more, but you would not get this deception in this movie, would you? Because it is woven into a love story with high flying special effects karate thrills.

Take this exert from an unknown source,

> The word "MARTIAL" means "OF WARFARE" or "SUITABLE FOR WARFARE". Martial Arts techniques were developed in India, China and later in Korea and Japan.
> They are all forms of combat (usually unarmed) and are grouped together under names such as "KUNG-FU" (China), "TAEKWONDO" (Korea), AIKIDO, KARATE, JUDO (Japan).
> The word "ARTS" indicates that they are not just forms of combat but expressions of EASTERN "SPIRITUAL" Philosophies and it is this "SPIRITUAL LINK" which lights the fuse to a deadly keg of 'SPIRITUAL, PHYSICAL AND MENTAL DYNAMITE!'
> In the words of Fred Neff (Author of "Hand Fighting Manual"),
> "UNDERSTANDING OF BOTH THE PHYSICAL AND THE PHILOSOPHICAL PRINCIPLES IS REQUIRED OF EVERY MARTIAL ARTS STUDENT."
> It is believed by "MARTIAL ARTS" instructors, that through a series of repetitive physical exercises, access can be gained to a realm known as the "SPIRIT WORLD", where tremendous power is available to the practitioner.
> NOTE: This belief is common to all Occult Philosophy, including Yoga, T.M., Taoism, Spiritism, Zen (Buddhism), etc and it is the height of foolishness to think that a person can engage in just the physical aspects (branches) of 'Martial Arts', (Judo, Yoga and so on) without being drawn into the deeper Spiritual Realm (The Root).
> We are told by one female expert for self defence (Black belt) that "The techniques of 'Martial Arts' (including Judo) have their origin in the SPIRITS OF ANIMALS, such as Tigers, Cobras, Monkeys, Bears etc and the student is encouraged to TAKE ON THE SPIRIT UNDERLYING THE TECHNIQUE IE BECOME A COBRA, TIGER etc. In the same book, the author encourages women to fight back by "Pressing their attacker's eyes into their brains" OR "Paralyzing them with a kick in the groin" OR "Making them dance with the threat of breaking a little finger" (Kaleghl Quinn – "Stand Your Ground").
>
> The man who was responsible for the development of Judo. (Dr Jigoro Kano) found a school in Tokyo called the KODOKAN which means "The Way". This final insult in the face of the Son of God and Saviour of the world JESUS CHRIST who said, "I AM THE WAY, THE TRUTH AND THE LIFE, NO ONE COMES TO THE FATHER BUT BY ME" (John 14:6).
> Will you encourage your children on the broad way to hell? Martial Arts will help lead to damnation – Yes, Damnation!

These religions, such as Hinduism are relatively old and at one time God just allowed them to be without pressing aggressively with "preachers" exposing the truth; but because he loves them he's now calling all practioners to leave these religions or Hell's fire awaits – no pardon. The word of God sates,

> "God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands; Neither is worshipped with men's hands, as though he needed any thing, seeing he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things; And hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation; That they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, though he be not far from every one of us: For in him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain also of your own poets have said, For we are also his offspring. Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device. And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent: Because he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man [Jesus]" (Acts 17:24-31)

Repent means to change, the best way is to stop from watching these movies.

Star Hunter

Star Hunter is another sci-fi film that depicted to me the technology takeover with the internet. What had happen at one instance is that someone reprogrammed their space ship's A.I to destroy the ship. It locked in the crew and other things, all because everything was computerized. Just to demonstrate the technological Internet takeover, at one point the reprogram holographic A.I "dissed" a member of the crew by saying, "The program I use to boil the water is smarter than you." When I watched that the Sunday night I didn't thought much of it until the next day – a program used to boil the water – an actual computer program that makes fresh boiled water for you every morning. I realized how close we are to this when I considered the microwave. But being connected to a full computerize system (internet) will make boiling water like typing your name. You'd be on your way home and send a command (typed or voiced) for the water to boil. This might look like a great help to everyday life, but with everything computerize your privacy will be gone, easy to hack in your life and more importantly, for you to be controlled as seen in the section on the internet or the ICI document – www.threeq.com/pages/internet.html.

Jake 2.0

Having read the previous chapters consisting of Mutants, Cyborgs and the Internet, the series Jake 2.0 is not hard to understand. What happened is that he's a mutated cyborg type action hero with the ability to connect to computers, half man half machine without physically having any element of metal in him – he's the ultimate 21st century mutant. It's called Jake 2.0 because it's an upgrade of Jake, like windows 5.0 to windows XP. Again, hitting the spot earlier mention of the devil's wickedness of upgrading humans who are Satanists and others by mutation. Jake had the ability by his mutation not only to be stronger, quicker and smarter but also could wirelessly turn on computers and operate them. Wasn't this a successful experiment of Prof. Warick about the chip he placed within himself, recorded earlier? He said,

"In August 1998, a silicon chip was implanted in my arm, allowing a computer to monitor me as I moved through the halls and offices of the Department of Cybernetics at the University of Reading, just west of London, where I've been a professor since 1988. My implant communicated via radio waves with a network of antennas throughout the department that in turn transmitted the signals to a computer programmed to respond to my actions. At the main entrance, a voice box operated by the computer said "Hello" when I entered; the computer detected my progress through the building, opening the door to my lab for me as I approached it and switching on the lights. For the nine days the implant was in place, I performed seemingly magical acts simply by walking in a particular direction."

In other words, Jake 2.0 is not just a mutant but a cyborg, "mark of the beast" puppet and the perfect Internet – wireless interconnection of computers by a fleshly living organism. This is not far off from reality and an enticement for it; because one news source recorded this about the chip that is place in the hand, "other potential application would put the chips in the role of an ultimate ID, capable of performing many of the roles that are performed by keys and ATM cards" (Dec 19, 2001).

At the end of this first episode of Jake 2.0 there was two things that had great significance.

One, they inducted him in a special secret agency – typical recruitment of Satanists, especially high level ones in government agencies. As mentioned earlier, Satanists force potentials into satanism. Mutating them, giving them familiar spirits and other things are used to make them feel special, to succor them in an initial atmosphere of elitism; like saying "you're the one," "you're accepted with us" or "this is your thru calling." Most often, prior to this, spirits would have made them socially inept and thus the agency or coven would be like a blessing where they can fit in. Much like Jake's nerd boy character.

Two, He handed his friend a wireless mouse to end the movie. First he came to fix her computer, she had an old system he suggested a wireless or upgrade. His mutation kicks in, a few scenes of it, then at the end he handed her the wireless mouse. In other words, you [representing other humans] need an upgrade too, like me.

X-Files

X-files might seem fictional to many but it has true tenets. For instance, the double-crossing within the agency. Reason being, most of these agencies are fronts for satanic agendas. But you can't point your finger at the F.B.I or C.I.A, because supposedly ordinary people like Molder and Skully run it. They do the dirty work while "the insiders" or devils in flesh do the cover up or devilry. They locate the ones who know the truth and the insiders indirectly have them killed or something to that effect. In other words, they are high paying puppets. A great example is seen in the movie "Triple X" or "XXX" staring Vin Diesel. He was thrown into the agency headlong and as his superiors said, "he's dispensable." As all human puppets are for these fronts. These agencies could also be used to harass progressive saints or assemblies "legally". As saints, we have to remember that mostly evil propel the worldly Kingdoms of this planet, though that will never be evidentially physical.

On the other hand, the direct story themes behind x-files have also duped the public in endless errors and paganism. For instance, one episode I watched Sept 7, 2003 Sunday night, indirectly taught that humans have Martians progenitors; in other words, we are put here by a higher race from Mars. They had a piece of strange writing that says it contains all the human genetic make-up. The rest of it and what looked like a Martian space ship was found off the Ivory Coast. This sort of thinking is embedded in several movies. They are not going to come and say these things, except Molder, but rather, episode after episode forces you to choose or draw a conclusion which they want you to draw – somewhat psychological; that's why T.V shows are programs. Other popular extra-terrestrial films do the same thing, like E.T, Aliens, Independence Day, Stars Wars, Starship Trooper and others keep programming the public of the alien delusion – there existence, their superiority, their possible help or wrath and the delusion goes on, even some that are biblical. The section of Aliens already taught on the truth about it but how can you resist to believe some of these things if you keep watching these films. This alone from the X-files program would get your ticker going, "The Truth is out there." Unfortunately, they teach a truth that is beyond what is real truth – "The Bible."

FACTS & THOUGHTS

Something in the Name?: Spam, spam, spam: One billion cans of Spam had been sold by 1959. The two billion mark was hit in 1970, followed by three billion in 1980, four billion in 1986, and five billion cans in 1993. (First in the can, then in the computer!)

Lemon Power: Thin-skinned lemons are the juiciest. (Thin skinned people the sourest too?)

Wondrously Made: There are 35 million digestive glands in the stomach and 62,000 miles of arteries, capillaries, and veins in the adult human body. (Wouldn't want to get lost inside!)

Life's a Headache: According to Bayer Aspirin, over 50 billion aspirin tablets are taken worldwide each year. (Aspirin makes the world go round. Instead of the head!)

Be Happier: A survey by the Barna Institute has shown that 84% of Evangelical Christians in America are very happy with life, and feel connected to others as compared to 57% of Agnostics and Atheists. 89% felt their faith was getting deeper, compared to 19% of non-faith people. Only 14% felt life was becoming more stressful compared to 29% of those with no faith who felt that way.

JOKES & RIDDLE

The old man had died. A wonderful funeral was in progress and the country preacher talked at length of the good traits of the deceased, what an honest man he was, and what a loving husband and kind father he was.
Finally, the widow leaned over and whispered to one of her children, "Go up there and take a look in the coffin and see if that's your pa in there."

Q. What is the best way to get to Paradise?
A. Turn right and go straight.

Q. Which Prophet was the most flagrant lawbreaker in the Bible?
A. Moses. Because he broke all 10 commandments at once.

Fortress

When I watched this film I thought this is too obvious, mark on the hand scanned at ports, population control and then the epitome of it shown in the underground prison system. The closest thing I'd watch to this control environment film, years ago, was Demolition Man. Now when I watched Fortress I thought this is impossible, why would satan allow such a film to depict exactly what will or is happening? We are probably wrong, it might not be going to or is happening this way. Then I remembered what I said earlier, "Hollywood plays a major role in diverting the public from believing these things aren't harmful because the devil knows that 'nothing is secret, that shall not be made manifest; neither any thing hid, that shall not be known and come abroad' (Lk 8:17). So like the woman with the familiar spirit who mocked Paul with the truth (Acts 16:17-18), he has to subtly bring it out so as to pacify it before it is revealed or made manifest."

Though I'm not enticing movie watching, you have to see this movie to believe what is intended:- the mark on the hand, an insert in the belly (literally and/or representative of possession), Artificial Intelligence, Cyborgs, clones, Audio/Video monitoring and lots of technology; all working in a environment to control humans and make them a New World Order slave.

A.I Artificial Intelligence

This Spielberg film, A.I, is really a frightening one, starring the same little boy from sixth sense; now as a robot name David. It portraits much deception but can hardly be seen being captivated by the real intense melodramatic scenes, Haley Osment can really act. It is scary because A.I has long since been amongst us in different forms, but if propelled to this level satan might well have an army of machines and props for controlling you; even if you have them in your homes as helps. Seeing that it is computers, it can and will be used against you, much like the delusion with the computer chip placed in the hands or the use of the internet. Not only that, but it will help in heightening sin in more ways than one, as even portrait in the movie. For instance, it use for artificial sex, much like an upgrade to a vibrator as seen in the character Jude Law plays. Don't think these humanoid A.I aren't been developed because even one scientist said, "My colleague Russell Beale once suggested a useful introductory definition of Artificial Intelligence (AI) for people who know nothing about it: "AI can be defined as the attempt to get real machines to behave like the ones in the movies" (Aaron Sloman, http://www.cs.bham.ac.uk/~axs/misc/aiforschools.html). In other words, as I've said throughout this book, "life follows art." Also from IBM's site: "Artificial Intelligence (AI) is the study of how computer systems can simulate intelligent processes such as learning, reasoning, and understanding symbolic information in context. AI is inherently a multi-disciplinary field. Although it is most commonly viewed as a subfield of computer science, and draws upon work in algorithms, databases, and theoretical computer science, AI also has close connections to the neurosciences, cognitive science and cognitive psychology, mathematical logic, and engineering" (from Research: Artificial Intelligence).

What this film does is causes you to sympathies to and be really enticed to have A.I's. Our society have already been pruned for this – that is, growing up on Barbie dolls and other humanoid toys. For instance, when I was younger I had an attachment to a 'teddy bear' who was a monkey. I slept with it, eat with it, played with it and kept it clean, plus it always stay only on my bed when I'm not there. Ironically, my teddy was also named David. All my relatives knew the love I had for David. One day my cousins came for the holidays and an afternoon when I came into my room I saw David hanging from the window with a cord around his neck; they did it to mock me. I went straight up to my cousin and punched here square in the eye, even though she was older that I. I remember Deon crying after that whack. I had so much feelings for a lifeless inanimate piece of material, imagine the fascination many will have with humanoid A.I's.

One biblical scene alone from the movie A.I will fix you permanently to accept, use and be entangled in humanoid A.I's. The scene entails the destruction of two A.I including David at this celebration of life festival. The announcer announced in slight jester, "he who is without sin cast the first stone." They had this object in there hands to hit a target over the A.I's head and acid would pour out and destroy the machine. No one could cast the balls they had in their hands to destroy the cute looking A.I David and in outraged tossed it at the announcer. Another film that has long program you to this coming reality is Star Trek and epitomized by its movie Star Trek Nemesis. Everyone who watch Star Trek the series will know that "Data" is the most popular A.I in the movie industry seconded by Johnny 5. "Data," the humanoid A.I on Captain Picard ship showed us why he is the leading A.I in show biz. He made the choice of sacrificing himself to save captain Picard and the ship – a task not even the captain wanted him to do. The entire survival from start to finish of The Enterprise was because of Data, in the movie Star Trek Nemesis. Other films, like The Matrix or even Terminator 3: Rise of the Machines, also shows the perils that this may cause, but always with humans overcoming; in other words, this peril will never happen humans will make sure of that, relax and don't speak out against it. With film like these and the western culture of humanoid toys, it will be easy to get caught in another plot of the enemy to ensnare the lives of men through A.I.: And don't think they are not coming because M.I.T has an entire department dedicating to making it a reality and with we getting lazier and lazier having machines that can think for themselves would seems like a blessing. In fact, Business Week's 2003 edition of The BusinessWeek50 said, "Some managers still think that artificial intelligence—the decades-long effort to create computer systems with human-like smarts—has been a big flop. But executives at most companies on the BW50 list know better. Artificial intelligence (AI) is often a crucial ingredient in their stellar performance. In fact, AI is now a part of a swath of industries as broad as the BW50 itself" (aaai.org).

Then nearing the end of the Spielberg film A.I, they had to include another delusion – the UFO phenomena; 2000 years later when man became extinct they found David. Again fooling the public of alien bodies living on another planet with superior technology that probably had a hand in creating man. Lies all lies. And by the way, man will never become extinct; we even continue when time is ended (Rev 22:5). Avoid A.I even in its non-humanoid form, as it is computers and thus can be easily used to manipulate you – fully discussed in the section Modern Technology and the ICI document. Nevertheless, it is getting inevitable especially with the use of the internet and the doubling of knowledge every three years. Advancement might equal your control.

Another cover up I dear to cite and feel compelled to interject is mind control slaves, as previously mentioned. The way in which David maneuvers and is programmed is the same way mind control effects its captives. Their intelligence is altered to be controlled so in a sense they are artificially intelligent, much like the ones at NASA – "compu kids." As previously mentioned, similar to the movie's different mechas or A.I's, they are different mind control slaves: Delta for killing and assassination, Bravo 2 series for running the beast computer, Juliet series for using in sex scandals and wild parties and many other types. The way in which A.I are treated in Spielberg's movie A.I, is the same way mind control slaves are treated. Used and disposed of, especially if you're a Juliet series slave, use for things like compromising politicians. I'm not making this up, humans are programmed to function exactly as A.I's, which would make this sort of technology (mind control) superior to humanoid robotics even in its greatest advancements. Read a book called "The Illuminati's Formula For Creating An Undetectable Mind Control Slave." Notice the word "Undetectable;" check the references at the end to find an online and hard copy.

Matrix

Many movies and programs typify fallen angels and satanic themes subtly; for example, mutant X, X-men, Super Man, Star Gate, City of Angels and many others. But no other movie do it so subtly and enticing as 'The Matrix'.

I watched this movie late 2002, wasn't really a fan of television and still isn't. However, my cousin kept nagging me for months to see this movie and so one day in his room he showed it to me in his play station 2. When the opening scene started I laughed him to scorn as he really felt ashamed, but I couldn't help it, "this is what you wanted me so bad to watch, a woman in a black tight suit thinking she can do Kung Fu." However, I settled down and he convinced me to watch the rest. I then became hooked, I though what ingenuity, who devised this plot. I didn't get much from it then, except that I knew something was behind it. Being fascinated, I watched it another time later, probably early 2003. But it wasn't until I watched it the third time in May 2003, as every T.V station was carrying it because part 2 was coming out, then I realized the many deception that it holds. This was the conclusion that I shared with many:

As with most Television programs, we are forced to choose a bad guy and a good guy – between mutant and mutant, gunslinger and gunslinger, bad cop and good cop or as it all boils down to between thief and robber. This is a spy versus spy (mad magazine) delusion, a T.V programming were the viewers are psychologically forced in choosing between evil and evil and thus govern their lives through this way of thinking; by their choice. This is also the delusion with the matrix.

Neo is actually a representative of the Neo Paganism or New Ageism. New Agers world wide are all looking for and working to bring about this New Age Christ; much like Neo. Here's a quote from its stalwart Alice Bailey, "To enable Him today to walk among men requires a world which will have in it enough effective workers and spiritually-minded people to change the atmosphere of our planet; then and only the, the Christ can and will come." [You can find more at http://homepages.ihug.co.nz/~newlight/roc/quotes.htm]

But what they don't know is that this New Age Christ will be the Anti-Christ. As seen with one of the opening remarks from the guy who came to buy stolen software from Neo, he said, "You are my Jesus Christ." Or more matrixy, the chosen one. The very word Matrix is a biblical word for womb. It is found here, "That thou shalt set apart unto the LORD all that openeth the matrix, and every firstling that cometh of a beast which thou hast; the males shall be the LORD'S" (Ex 13:12). In other words, according to the bible usage, the first-born male who breaks the womb (matrix) of his mother is dedicated to the Lord and becomes a priest unto him. Similarly, Neo beating the matrix is symbolic of him being divine or the 'chosen one.'

Other biblical themes are used throughout the movie to fashion it perfectly for satan's deception of us accepting this New Age Christ and mimic God's plan of salvation. Morpheus naming his hovercraft Nebuchadnezzar is a representative of modern day Babylon, which is a representative of the end times. He stating that he doesn't know what time they are living in, but giving reference to the sun loosing its light is also a sign of the latter times and true Bible prophecy; Jesus said, "But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light" (Mr 13:24); plus our present calendar are off-course, we literally don't know what year exactly we are in.

They, Neo's gang, calling the earth's core or central city of hope Zion, is a mimicry of the Christian's Zion. For Zion is situated in Israel where as prophesied in the Bible, a New City shall descend from the sky where Jesus shall rule the earth visible. The born again Christians shall enjoy that ruler ship with him in perpetual joy, peace and ecstasy beyond imagination. It reads, "And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away" (Rev 21:4). Nevertheless, Zion can be where the heart is or where true born again Judeo-Christian believers gather.

Tank in the movie said, "if this war is over tomorrow, Zion is where the party will be." Similar to the Bible scripture above. However, notice where the Matrix's Zion is – the earth's core, where fires of lava flow. This could very well be referring to the place in the Bible as the "lake of fire;" a place of torment reserved for satan and his angels after the last war is fought between God and his saints and satan and his angels. It reads,

BEGINNING OF WAR: "And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels, And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven. And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him" (Rev 12:8-9).

END OF WAR: "And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever" (Rev 20:10)

The devil and his angels know their time and know that at the end of their deceiving they will be going to the "lake of fire;" as expressed in this verse, "What have we to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God? art thou come hither to torment us before the time?"(Mk 8:29). So then, Neo and his gang are representatives of fallen angels or devils who awaits the "lake of fire" or the matrix's Zion.

The Bible also said that nearing the end, satan and his angels will be cast to the earth (Rev 12:8-9) and there they will fight against Israel and the church. It reads,

PRIOR TO END OF WAR: "And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted the woman [Israel] which brought forth the man child…And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed [Christians], which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ" (Rev 12:13-17).

In other words, God kicked them out of heaven to the outer skies (Rev 12:8-9), but sometimes later near the end God kicks them out of the outer skies and bound him on earth (Rev 12:13-17); where he has no more access to the heavens. In his anger he goes after Israel and the Christians as seen in the verse above. His anger is then heightened where he bounds man under a system whereby man is forced to receive the mark of the Beast, possibly a computer chip, to enslave them to a system. But those that escape are those redeemed by Jesus, that's why he went after them. The Matrix Movie tries to portrait these redeem ones that escape the system as the rebels in Morpheus' army, but as written earlier we see that they are just fallen angels, under the spy vs. spy T.V programming for you to subtly accept the New Age Christ and accept them through technology.

During this time he will also set up his anti-Christ and/or satanic Trinity. The three agents in the movie represent this satanic Trinity that rule the matrix or world. However, as you might realize, this is where the paradox comes in; because the New Age Christ (or anti-Christ) is to be apart of the satanic Trinity. But here we see the T.V spy vs. spy programming coming into play again, where you are forced to mental choose between evil and evil. That is, Neo (New Age Christ) and the Agents (Satanic Trinity), where the New Age Christ should be apart of the Trinity. But then the paradox unravels itself when Neo raises from the bullet wounds, like Jesus' resurrection or more fittingly like the coming anti-Christ prophecy; "And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast" (Rev 13:3).

Then the unraveling epitomizes when Neo jumps in Agent X and becomes him or a number in the satanic trinity. When the other two ran away is a reflection of the 'revealed Jesus Christ', who is the Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Not three persons but one (Due 6:4, I Tim 3:16). But for us to grasp the mystery of the Godhead and salvation, Jesus spoke of the father as a separate person who was really him as he told his disciple Philip: "Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? he that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Shew us the Father?" (John 14:9).

In addition, the A.I or non-human intelligence that came and supposedly took over humanity is actually representing fallen angels and satan; who were kicked out of the outer skies to earth, as even the Bible pity us earthlings by saying, "Woe to the inhabiters of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time" (Rev 12:12). That's why, through the writers, we see satan popping this statement to Morpheus strapped to a chair, "I hate this place [earth];" Morpheus strapped to the chair represent his state on earth. All of that speech, which was orated to Morpheus, is typified satan mumbo-jumbo hatred. So down to the very plot, scene, actor and actresses are all deceptions to us, in this master piece film that utilizes spy vs. spy programming to let us choose between the A.I and the rebels who both represent fallen angels or devils (or a mixture of fallen angels and their human progeny – satanists. Satanists usually become half man half spirit; real satanists and not the ploy they put up front in 'satanic churches.' They are represented by Tank and his brother, who can't do the things Neo and others can do, as they are said to be born in the matrix era.); which also ushers us in anticipating a false technological Christ. Alice Bailey certify this corruption, "His coming in the air 'in the clouds of the air' (Matt.24,54) might be interpreted literally to mean that at the right time He will come by plane from the place on earth where He has been for many generations, watching over the sons of men; the words 'every eye shall see Him' might mean that by the time He comes television will have been perfected and He will then be seen, by its means, from even the most distant spot on earth. Why should it be blasphemy for Him to use modern methods?" (The Externalisation of the Hierarchy. p. 575)

This movie is hard to resist because it's really well done. In fact, I love the special effects, but now have to try and avoid getting into it all together; as we can be drawn away by our lusts and entice and be ensnared, not knowing that all the parties involved might be influenced by satan; even unknowingly. I saw Neo in an interview with Access Hollywood May 10, 2003 for a premier of Part 2 and at one point answering a question, he flashed a satanic sign. Go here to see how it looks http://www.exposingsatanism.org/signsymbols.htm.

Beware of this film, because it is very deceptive on the mind, with catchy special effects. "Come out from among them and be ye separate saith the Lord…" If you truly want to break free from the matrix and enter eternal life, "ye must be born again!"

In addition, I mentioned in the introduction how the teaching on Satanism can be unsound, this is because evil spirits could have known this writing would come about (Chapter 5 will show you how they can know this) so to pacify it they could make adjustments in Reloaded and Revolution; I haven't seen them yet. It's now Dec 2005 and I wrote that last line 2003 and since then have watched both films and my suspicions of adjustments were correct. Nonetheless, what is written above stand still and truth can never be shaken!

Spy Kids 3-D: Game Over

This is another high tech movie with a Matrix theme. The spy kids, like Neo, are beamed into a virtual reality world or Game where as the Coral Spring local paper puts it, "to save the world from a power hungry villain." This movie brings us closer to the other side of the Matrix I didn't mention. That is, I saw a play station 2 advertisement and at the end of it this comment was made, "Live in your world, play in ours." Many don't realize that this theme has a hidden agenda behind it, which is the catalyst of the real "Matrix Revolution." What is that? You alive in this literal world and your sub conscience is in another world, but it seems like the real world. Just like how the members of Morpheus' ship beam themselves through their sub conscience hooked to a computer into the virtual reality world (a playing ground for the devil). If they die in that world, as seen in the movie 'The Matrix', they die in the real life. Though this is a nice movie, it's someone's intention for us as a people in future. How far it gets, no one can tell.

Everything in the gaming industry, virtual reality industry and computers are leading up to that end. Even the different funny faces in your hotmail account, "emoticons," are the beginning stages, though very very far from it. Guest books, interests and profile collection online are stages to make perfect avatars – those little dolls you have representing you online. An avatar also means incarnation or "the embodiment of a deity or spirit in some earthly form" (Webster). In other words, avatars are incarnation of spirits. If humans are to have avatars, real ones, that would be exactly what is seen in the movie Matrix. Because that would mean your soul disembodied from your flesh into another dimension or substances; like Neo beaming into the Matrix or a devil (fallen angel) taking on a human form. If life follows art, as seen in many instances, then a computer system might be developed where you can be incarnated into a computerized body. This can only lead to untold devilry. See a remarkable development of this at www.sitepal.com

If time tarries, what you'll be able to do is the same exact thing Neo, Morpheus, Trinity, etc. do in the movie 'The Matrix'. The other world is already created, it's call the 'internet.' Online dolls, role-playing and avatars are progressive stages. Development from here to the "Real Matrix Revolution" might take time but it's certain and with Hollywood, it will be appealing; like this movie Spy Kids 3-D:Game Over. There is actually a project at MIT developing real life avatars (visit: http://web.media.mit.edu/~hannes/project/intro.html).

Sims Online is one of the online games that draws us closer to this. One article wrote, "Chase is a mob dealer - but only in the virtual world. He is one of hundreds of players who found the path of lawlessness and deviance too irresistible when 'The Sims Online' challenged them to 'be Somebody…else'. The popular commercial game, where thousands of people interact electronically, is turning into a petri dish of anti-social behavior. And that's raising questions about whether limits on conduct should be set in such emerging virtual worlds, even if they are huge adult play pens." Isn't it then obvious that the direct theme behind the Movie matrix and Spy Kids 3-D:Game Over are not just entertainment but meant to deceive, pacify and entice to a coming evil reality; plus distract us from God.

Jurassic Park

Through Hollywood and some secular school teaching, satan is attempting to have we think (saved and unsaved) that we are just another animal and not the glorious dominant reflection of God that we are (Gen 1:27); even worse, that we are descendants of monkeys or some single celled organism or put here by aliens. Planet of The Apes, Jurassic Park 2 and 3, PBS's Evolution, Star Gate, Magic School bus and others help this along greatly; Dinotopia to an extent (could be a counteraction). But God purposely made man dominant rulers of the earth. "All things were made by Him (John 1:3), including dinosaurs. Why then did the dinosaurs disappear? The answer may be found in Job 40:15-24. In this passage, God speaks about a great creature called '"behemoth'. Some commentators think this was a hippopotamus. However, the hippo's tail isn't like a large tree [as described in this verse], but a small twig. Following are the characteristics of this huge animal: It was the largest of all the creatures God made; was plant-eating (herbivorous); had it strength in its hips and tail like a large tree. It had very strong bones, lived among trees, drank massive amounts of water, and was not disturbed by the raging river. He appears impervious to attack because his nose could pierce through snares, but scripture says, "He that made him can make his sword to approach unto him." In other words, God caused this, the largest of all the creatures he made, to become extinct" (The Evidence Bible, Good News S. Florida, 2003). Why? Only he can tell, but one suggestion is that since spirits can posses an animal they would be able to possess dinosaurs and through this possession terrorize the land in dominance; over against the natural need to eat. Not that the dinosaurs have this capacity or resistance as Jurassic Park suggests (would be "ruling primate"), but being possessed by a higher intelligent force can be willed to act intelligently. So it's not the dinosaurs but the spirit beings maneuvering them. Similar to how God use beasts to discipline disobedient Israelites, "So will I send upon you famine and evil beasts, and they shall bereave thee" (Eze 5:17). This is not difficult for evil spirits to do, because even some witches who travel as cats or other animals don't always transform themselves in one but actually leave their body and possess the creature. God place in nature some strain on certain animals that if they had their way biologically, man would be extinct; the same goes for dinosaurs or greater size beasts, whether in intelligence or bodily senses. For instance, one book noted, "insects have not lungs such as man has; they breathe through tubes. But the tubes do not grow larger as the insect grows, thus preventing the development of big insects. Without this natural restriction on the size of the insect's breathing apparatus, man would long since have lost his battle with tiny creatures" (Dr. A. Cressy Morrison). Moreover, humans are one of the best restrictions on larger animals because of our God given intelligence to dominate an area. For instance, God told the Israelites not to destroy all the nations just yet, lest the beasts come up on the wasted land and dominated it, "thou mayest not consume them at once, lest the beasts of the field increase upon thee" (Due 7:22). In other words, humans were settling on the area and thus beasts, greater in size and strength couldn't dwell there because humans prevented them. You're greater than all beasts on the earth and God made it so (Gen 1:26); now through being born again you're greater than all God's creatures in the entire universe (angels, seraphim, etc) and Christ made it so (Heb 1:3-9, Heb 2:11). You'll see this in the last two chapters.

The Abyss

This is the only movie I didn't watch this summer, it was one of my Old time favorite. I'd always thought it was nice science fiction film. But later found out by ex-satanists and research that devils have underwater civilizations. Remember, fallen angels are spirit beings, so they can go, live and be anywhere. I like how the movie Abyss puts them, as lights or illuminated creatures that can easily manipulate water. Not only that, they can take the shape of anything or create bodies to dwell in, even "Mer-people"; they are several accounts during history of people spotting Mermaids. Nevertheless, that seems too far-fetch to explore, let the Disney's Little Mermaid 2 suffice. You see the problem often lies in who fallen angels are and their nature. The only thing we can compare spirit beings to is God, being that he is spirit. There are six bible definitions of God, who is so complex that no one definition can suffice.

Psalms 36:9 – "With thee, O God, is the fountain of life"
James 1:17 – "The Father of lights"
1 John 1:5 – "God is love"
1 John 4:8-16 – "God is love"
John 4:24 – "God is a spirit"
Hebrews 12:9 – "Father of spirits"

His nature is spirit and spirits are basically light; with the ability to have no distinct form. He is the father of spirits because he made all spirit beings and being spirit meant that their nature is also light; thus making him the father of lights. Notice that light and spirit are used interchangeable, because if you literally saw a spirit you would see pure light, clearer than crystal (Ex 24:10). This is God's nature. Yet because of love, he forsook this perfection to come and die for man in corruptible flesh. By this demonstration of love he has given those who believe in him life, being that with him is the fountain of life:- "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life" (John 3:16). Remember, Jesus isn't another man but God the Father in flesh. That's why the word of God tells us this about Jesus, "He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not" (John 1:10). In other words, God, ruler of all things that made the heaven and earth was in the world as another human being and the world up till now don't know that; except for a select few that the world don't know either – genuine born again Christians.

Others

As mentioned earlier, they are many others if not all. By no means am I telling you to watch T.V but rather to turn it off, no matter how mature or spiritual you deem yourself. Some of the shows are so subtly it's hard to grasp, like

"Joan of Arcadia" or even some under the guise of Christian viewing, not sure, but possibly "Touch By An Angel;" they are things that don't coincide with scripture. They are even some alleged Bible prophecy movies that are far from the actual thing. In an attempt to visualize prophecy, symbology is visualized and secular scene fillers are used to piece it together. This is most often done out of zeal but we have to be careful and overly precise when it comes to prophecy, it's not an Hollywood thing. One thing is for sure, he who controls the media controls the world, a bit like the movie "Tomorrow Never Dies," with James Bond trying to take down a Media Tyrant. In the movie "Omega Code 2: Megiddo," the anti-Christ said this about T.V or Mass Media, "It does the work for me." I can't see it any clearer than that; get rid of it and train your child not to watch it (Prov 22:6)!

Conclusion

Born again Christians today shun the preachings of old, opting to say it is not relevant for today or the preachers themselves were superstitious, thus they now conclude that we can watch T.V but use moderation. Lie! Moderation itself varies. The Holy Ghost Change not, so when this evil device started years ago and his prophets spake against it, it still stands; more so now. The thing with preaching is that it gives instructions from God but doesn't explain why (Due 29:29); those of faith will follow. But what I've done is shown you about 70% of the evil intent of T.V and movies. What you do now with the truth is up to you. My hope is that you refrain from it and definitely keep the children away as well.

I had ended there in the book "Demonology Revealed," and would expound on the 30% in the sequel, "Demonology Concealed: Strange New World." Having some experience and would experience / learn more. Things like the manipulation of the television, how they can know everything you watch and even program you screen. I had experience watching old and pre-gurgitated news and events, good and evil, some explained in the asterisk denotes below from upward; this is mainly targeted at me, as the asterisk will denote, but shows the capabilities thereof. Other things such as the changing over of all T.V's to digital by law, so as to further this agenda of mass programming (mind control) and control, though masked under increase quality viewing, though have that obvious benefit. This increase change to digital is weaving the T.V. in the internet and hence in the ICI plot, read that article (or volume 3 of this magazine). This will be epitomize in holographic projections. This is why – "Larry Gosshorn continues, 'In the new smart programs you will have three dimensional graphics. What does this mean? They can bring an image through your television set, using holograms and place a life-sized person in front of your television set by the bending of light beams, and you could not tell if that person was alive unless you would place your hand in the light beam. This could also be how the Anti-Christ will do it, seeing that the word image as in image of the Beast is translated from the Greek 'eikon', where we get the word icon from – check your Strongs or Crosswalk Greek interlinear." I had thought to get an old T.V. in storage when in crisis I might view a T.V. in my planned home, but what might happen is that old T.V.'s wont be able to pick up the signals, as everything is now upgraded, hence everyone must follow suit in the plot. T.V. can be good, but the enemy long realize it's sinister benefits and mask it as such totally. I myself sometimes lend my mind to think of a custom T.V. for my dream home, as an inventor myself, what I called "Surround View," one T.V but segmented in 3 or more – watching Alan Iverson taking the free throw to win an NBA title on the front screen while to my right that screen shows the crowd chanting against and to my left the crowd chanting for; all screens connected in one motion. It's like surround sound but surround view, one T.V capturing the same event by simultaneous connected screens; it would be the closest thing to being at the game, even closer than the side lines. But at last, you see how easy it is to get in these agendas, as I myself would be enticed; as it wouldn't stop with sports, but even horror movies. So I thought to stick to my first plan of not having a T.V in my house at all. In the sequel or 30% of things not mentioned in this first piece, I would end with the first scripture the Lord gave me on T.V., which the night or so before I was to hold a Teens meeting at my church and it was there I first preached it (1998-99). He said personally with an ordinary scripture not contextually tied to T.V., "They that observe lying vanities forsake their own mercy" (Jonah 2:8). Firstly, lying vanities that it is a lying indulgence; one, lying to you of indulgence when you are worst off and not really entertained or relaxed, two, it is an indulgence that is deceiving you. Pleasure is good, it is the excess that is bad, but this pleasure is fake and lying to you – mostly the programs. Now, though the Lord gives grace to stay unspotted from the world and out of sin that reaps punishments, watching teaching forsakes this grace. That is, it is like me giving you water (grace) to go water the fields in a basket (lying vanity). God's grace sustain us, but the T.V forsakes that grace and tamper with our spiritual well being; praying to the Lord to keep your mind, yet you keep filling it with junk programs on the T.V. – he keeps your mind yes, but all that is forsaken because you keep filling it with garbage. Then we opt to wonder if God is hearing our prayers. Also, like the basket, the indulgence is not real but lying. It fills you up but leaks out and you keep coming back to it for more and your entire spiritual, mental and social well-being is in Jeopardy; leaving your last state worst than the first, especially as it is greatly used as a tool of The Devil. It is best to avoid it as much as possible, all together if possible. Nevertheless, he that winneth soul is wise, and those of us who are grace to not indulge in it but love evangelism, would opt to use it to get to where the sinners and pseudo-Christians are at, though not encouraging saints to indulge in it. For example, me and a couple of guys targeted some night clubs (outside) with tracks and even get convictions at these place and people asking for prayers. Now, would you or I tell people to go to nightclubs, that would be like blasphemy. Having said thus and gave grounds for T.V. outreach (mainly the secular audience), it is best to avoid it as much as possible.

* denotes, where I might mix up names of movies, episodes or any such things, even strangely (time), is because of this:

In keeping with the thesis of the contents of this book being devoured by suckerers, they seeing places and sources where I get content from; when I began to do so (get it), it was probably manipulated or blocked. For instance, most of the FAQ's in "The Voice..." are persons emailing, so they blocked my emails, as lamented to Yahoo Inc in a recent letter, which has to be deliberate manipulation for it is a paid account with Gigs for space and for example, couldn't refuse email for over quota when I just got the email. Notice the ACC reference, it is a website or blog of mine, they freeze the account on the local county or state servers, so if persons asked questions or made references to things they had suck, they would delete it; and to a lesser extent, pre-gurgitate the source with the suckry. I've join under different names, then change the name on all groups (it's automatic and instant) but days later when I went to ACC I saw that the name wasn't changed on the .NET pass; it is efficient and should take immediate effect, which it did on the other groups, but not ACC, it means the group is frozen up for manipulation and why persons stop joining, even after 30, 000 invites to people who know me of that interest. This is said to prove my theory fact of suckry correct, which with this simple demonstration it is not a theory but a fact, many more obvious evidences and literal demonstrations I can give. Hence, the person who has the content that I should have from the Lord is the sucker and the person acclaiming the credits is a Testament that they are of this kind and posses such abilities to give my exact words with my exact personal experiences, having literally seen it before it was said. Hence the reason to block experiences, which I give often reference to in writing, to block their obvious suckry.

Another example with the SOURCE thingy in trying to avoid what they foresee in me realizing and exposing the suckery. That is, to avoid being the echo and solidify that I'm the legitimate author, I had started to put every source where I get everything from in quotations or research so no one would say I'm following so and so but that I did my own research and if anyone has what I said, even exactly, they are the suckerer – as Christ said, so am I – "All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them" (John 10:8). Now, by the Holy Ghost I've seen where this is also futile, because if they can see what I would do they would also foresee what I would do to avoid being an echo and fix that as well. In this case, stating the source in the suckery so when I found out about suckery in general and started doing it they would have already put that in and I would still be the echo. However, something happened, that is, in doing this they quoted sources that was not yet written and even worse, written by me as well. For example, by the Holy Ghost, though not fully remembering, but by the Holy Ghost, they quoted parts of FAQ 326 that says, "fully explained in the book 'Demonology Revealed'." Not only wasn't that book written as yet (2003), but also, I'm the author of that book and cross-reference my own books. To avoid that now they would say they probably spoke of another book with the same name, though I know of none and that would be unsuccessful. But by the Holy Ghost again, I saw a more avaricious suckry and attempted concealment of the suckery. They in the suckery seeing that I'm trying to avoid being the echo by quoting detailed sources did the same thing with another book that I'd written, but this time thinking this would be sure because of the astuteness and length of the source. That is, in another writing I quoted a section from the Student Manifesto, which is written like a piece of legislature, so when in the suckery they saw that I said Part this, Section This, Clause this of the Student Manifesto, they quickly said it to make sure I wouldn't escape being the echo and give them the credit for my work. They not knowing that the Student Manifesto wasn't yet written (2004) and more importantly written by me. As said they are loop holes in catching them and more examples like these, but you see the endless mental maddening gymnastics; and they seeing this after can do the same thing with known sources I would later use before its time by manipulating the T.V I watch, which I have seen them manipulating it; never wanted to touch on this aspect of T.V until Demonology Concealed, but....

Hence this encoded prophetic verse, "there is a man whose labour is in wisdom, and in knowledge, and in equity; yet to a man that hath not laboured therein shall he leave it for his portion. This also is vanity and a great evil" (Ecc 2:21). This man would be me in this case and a sucker taking my portion (not necessarily distribution release I had done) and this would definitely be a GREAT evil!
