The First Golden Rule of Poker

Maximize the size of the pots that you win; minimize the amount of your money in the pots that you lose.

The Second Golden Rule of Poker

When deciding whether or not to call, factor the amount of money being asked of you in relation to the amount of money in the pot.

The Third Golden Rule of Poker

Avoid playing too consistently; take note of the consistencies in your opponents.

The Fourth Golden Rule of Poker

Know the players at the table; adjust your playing style accordingly.

The Fifth Golden Rule of Poker

Be aware of tells in yourself; be aware of tells in others.

The Sixth Golden Rule of Poker

Utilize bluffing; bluff with the best-balanced frequency to maximize its usefulness.

The Seventh Golden Rule of Poker

Practice inexpensive advertising to create false impressions of your playing style.
