A FEW WORDS

People say love is blind. Yes, It is true! However, ever thought why it is so? People, who are in love think that they cannot stay alone, leaving their love partner. Does it mean that your love feelings are controlled by another person with whom you are in love? Are you sure?

Love is a feeling. Everyone has it. A few people exhibit it and a few don't. Everyone has their own way of doing things; same thing with love. A few people claim that they are die-hard romantic and a few others say that they don't believe in all this stuff.

Nevertheless, there is one thing to be remembered. Loving another person depends upon one's self. It does not depend upon another person. That means a person can fall in love any number of times in his/her life period with same or different people. There is no such thing like one can love only once in his/her lifetime and, the most important point, the love feeling that a person exhibits to another person cannot be locked by the other person. If a person feels that s/he can love only one person in his lifetime and if the other person leaves him/her in his lifetime, s/he cannot express the same kind of love or variations of it to other person is nothing but a lie; it is nothing but a person's own set of thinking limitations. This point can be proved in self-destructive love (in other words, it is also called 'one-side love') that a few people exhibit. These people do everything what they could to impress or convince the other person though they know very well that the other person won't give a damn in return. Here, love is not mutual but one-sided; getting exhibited by a single person.

You know! We can control our love feelings. People, exhibit this characteristic quite often, unknowingly. They love someone and marry someone else. And again they love the other person who entered their life forgetting all that pre-marital stuff.

See! This is the characteristic of love and we can control it like any other thing. And this is the secret of LOVE! However, most people think otherwise! May God bless them!

But you, who read and known this secret, can play with your LOVE LIFE!

Puzzled!

I love the puzzled expression in your face, whenever you see me

I love that silent communication between us, whenever we meet

I love the fading smile in your face, whenever you pass by me

I love the thrill that you show, whenever I suddenly bump into you

I love the way you trouble yourself to attract my attention, while I am busy at work

I love your rhythmic yet near-silent footsteps sound, while you pass by me

I love those stealing glances you pass at me, while you talk to your friends

I love the way you shy, whenever I look into your eye unexpectedly

Love Poems

However, though this much communication is happening between us, I would like to know, why you are unable to express your love to me!

Love Poems

---

Do You Love Me?

Whenever I look at you, you look sideways as if you are ignorant of my glances

When I don't see you, that time, you make it a point to let your presence known to me

When I gather courage to tell you something about my love, you won't give a chance to me to talk to you

Frustrated, when I try to forget everything about you and start focusing on my work, then again you make it a point to let your presence known to me

Whenever, by chance, our eyes meet, I can see an ounce of affection in them for me

Now, I am puzzled! I don't know whether that affection is my feeling or really you have something for me!

If you do not have any feelings for me, I would like to ask, why repeatedly you make it a point to let your presence known to me.

Why don't you let me know whether you love me!

Handling a Feeling Called 'Love'

When love enters your life, your heart stops beating but starts pounding

You want to 'give up' everything for that chosen one! Why?

The 'sacrifice game', which you don't like so far, you start playing it

And you end up loving that very person, whom you have been thinking as stupid, so far! How?

Everyone is not fortunate to get love in life

But, all those who get it, they cannot hold it for long! Why?

First, they play with love, and they miss it, and then they lose it

Then again they try to search for it throughout their life! Why?

Do We Know About Love, Baby!

What is love, baby?

You, falling in my hands, every time!

Or, me kissing you as and when I get a chance!

Or, you saying yes to whatever I ask

Or, me, obliging all your wishes!

What is understanding, baby?

You, trying to presume what I regularly ask you!

Or, me, trying to figure out all your weaknesses

Or, you, coming to know all my habits

Or, me, knowing what & all you suspect!

What is belief, baby?

You, believing that I help you out in household chores

Love Poems

---

Or, me, believing that you give your hard earned salary to me

Or, you, believing that I abdicate all my vices

Or, me, believing that you won't annoy me anymore about petty issues!

However, the magic thing is... without knowing so many things about love, we are in love with each other!

LOVE REQUEST

Yo! Baby!

Eat for yourself but dress for me baby

Do your work but perform for me baby

Work on your sorrows but smile for me baby

Kill your enemies but love me baby

Forget your personal problems but share joy with me baby

Don't spare others but forgive me baby

Be strict with others but care for me baby

Don't love anyone but accept me baby!

Stay Happy... Don't Lose Hope!

Play your life the way you want

Don't lick your wounds on whatever has happened so far

Time does not stop for anybody

Feel and enjoy every minute of your life as never before

Stay happy... Don't lose HOPE

There may be ups and downs in life

There may be issues with your loved ones

There may be innumerable sorrows in your life

There may be life-threatening situations in your life

Yet try to stay happy... Don't lose HOPE

You might not get whatever you asked for

You might not become whatever you aimed for

Love Poems

---

You might not enjoy whatever you craved for

You might not achieve whatever you wished for

Yet try to stay happy... Don't lose HOPE

B'cos by staying happy and not losing HOPE, you may earn yourself a second chance!

Are You There In My Destiny?

You have been a passing dream in my life so far

But I don't know when I can hold you physically

You are like a distant mirage to my thirsty soul

But I don't know whether you are real

You are very near to my soul

But you are very far from me physically

You live only in my imagination

But I feel you day & night in my thoughts

You encourage me every second with your presence in my feelings

But I am discouraged due to lack of your soothing touch

You promised in my dreams that you will live with me forever

But as days passing by, my mind asks me only one question...

Are you there in my destiny?

Are You In Love With Your Life?

If sweet words are coming from your beautiful lips, then you are in love with your language

If caring and sharing are part of your life, then you are in love with yourself

If conveying feelings through eyes is part of your life, then you love to understand people

If you are finding beauty even in ugly things, then you are in love with your inner personality

If you are empathizing with whomever you are interacting with, then you are in love with your articulation skills

If you are keeping yourself healthy and improving immunity, then you are in love with your body

However, if you are in love with the person who loves you, only then you are in love with your life!

Art of Acting

The day I saw you, I found a new inspiration to live life again

You made a mark on me without even looking at me!

The day I spoke to you, I was really thrilled

Your words made me dumbstruck for a few moments

The day I conveyed my interest in you, I was in love with you head over heels

Your billion dollar acceptance smile gave me a new life altogether

The day you bunked your class and came with me, I felt that I was on top of this world

Your belief in me gave me a lot of happiness

The day you looked in to my eyes and understood my feelings for you, I felt that I found my lady love

Your acceptance boosted my confidence like never before

Love Poems

---

The day I received your letter telling that you are marrying someone as per your parents wishes, I understood your true love

Your struggle to keep everyone happy made me realize your 'art of acting' – Amen!

Are We In Love?

The day you stopped talking to me, I thought my world came to an end

The day you passed at me firing glances, literally my spirits went down

The day you shared our details with some other, I felt the distance between us grown by leaps and bounds

The day you told me that you want to be alone without my presence, I thought that is the end point of our relation

The day you suddenly sent a hate mail to me listing my mistakes, I am shocked to the core

People in love should forgive each other's mistakes, right!

Then, are we in love with each other in the first place to feel all this?

Where I Stand In Your Love Life?

Just like a water drop on a lotus leaf

Just like a chalk scribble on a plastic cover

Just like the movement of a skater on ice surface

Just like a parachute gliding through cold mist air

Am I therein your love life without any attachment?

Just like a ring that cannot fit any finger on your hand

Just like a stud that does not fit in to your jewelry set

Just like your old dress, which you like but don't wear

Just like your nanny, whom you love but do not want her around you

Am I there in your love life without any purpose?

Just like your dog, which follows you everywhere?

Love Poems

Just like your pressure ball, which you use only when you feel stressed

Just like your flashy accessories, which you feel like wearing whenever you go for a party

Just like your mobile, which you play with whenever you feel bored

Am I there in your love life without any attachment?

Whatever it is baby, now you know that we both are on our own ways and have lost our love chemistry!

U

Shockingly, while I was facing storms in life, you were not there with me

Alas! I need you that time very direly

Surprisingly, somebody else filled that requirement and she has now became very dear to me

Happily, after braving those entire crises in life, now, when my life is going smooth

Suddenly, you appeared from nowhere and started questioning my loyalty!

Hopingly, you want to re-enter my life now, but what about that person who stood by me and braved all the storms without uttering a word

Bravely, I decided to stand by that person whom I think my life-giver

Hopelessly, you cursed and left me without listening to my explanation for the stand taken by me!

Love Poems

Why You Left Me?

When my life is becoming a puzzle, I searched for you

When things are going out of my hand, I tried to reach you

When friends are turning into foes, I needed your help

When the pitch black night is surrounding my life's only spirit, I screamed your name

But, you were not there for me!

When my hope is getting replaced with desperateness, I cried for your strength

When my devastating loneliness is doing a wild dance around me, I thought about you

When my mental peace is wiped away by my self-defeating fearful thoughts, I looked around for your pleasant smile

When my life's ideals are getting thrashed down by society's poisonous desires, I remembered your inspiring golden words

Love Poems

Although you know that I die this much for you, still you left me?

Love Poems

COMING BACK!

---

Love Poems

---

Why Now?

I expressed my interest in you but you looked at others

You know my wish but you did not care

I expressed my desire so many times to you but you deliberately pushed it aside

I did my level best to do whatever you like but you never gave much importance to me

I always looked at you with passion but you always misunderstood me wrongly

I told you that I am ready to cross my limits for you but you never believed in me

I tried to convince you in so many ways but you did your best to look at only cons of our relationship

Finally, when I decided to go on my way with someone who loves me

Why you again try to come back in to my life?
