

Taylor Edelen
Block 4
3-8-05

A tiny voice asked is he the one?

The house on Devil Dill Dr.

Exposition-

Gabe's family was at a party that was located at a park and Cameron was missing. Gabe the father knew that those nasty Park Hunters kidnapped Cameron. No one believed Gabe though so he went solo on that mission. He went to the top of a hill and looked around for anything suspicious. He thought someone was watching him. There was someone watching! He could tell by the chill that was crawling down his back. But who? There was no one around.

Rising action-

Gabe dashed away running as fast as his legs could carry him. He looked back and there wasn't anyone following him, he found sight of his car and ran to it. He noticed someone was then following him, it was a black Ford van like a black hole sucking Gabe's car in, and it was catching up! Gabe went over a bridge and then turned right then left, but the van was right on his tail! He drove through the 6ft clearance and tried to get out of the city for the night, where he could trust that no one would come and get him. He finally realized that no one was following him. Gabe went to a motel and stayed for the night. When he woke up the next morning and went back to the park which had been bugging him all night long.

Climax-

He stood at one of the hills and noticed that there's a slight change of the grass height, so he went over to it and felt it, the area was very hollow. The area turned out to be a trap door. He opened it and found that there was an underground city, it would take days for him to check them all for his son, but the tiny little mouse made it easy for Gabe and asked "Is he the one?" While pointing to a picture, Gabe said "yes, do you know where to find him" and the mouse told Gabe "The house on Devil Dill Dr. the mouse sort of buzzed the location of Gabe's son. So Gabe had to go secretly or the people might take him to! So he climbed down the latter, no one was around he assumed, but there were and he couldn't see them, he went to the house and looked thorough at the house and assumed that there is two people in the room besides Cameron, but he couldn't tell because of the house was wacky weird and wild! He went to the front door and knocked, someone opened the door and said "Can I help you?" and then Gabe said "Yes, by giving back my son". Then Gabe knocked him out, closed the door and followed his son's faint voice. He knocked a body guard out too, and went up the stairs to the first bedroom. There was no one; he went to the third door because the door was closed. Gabe opened the door as quietly as possible and he saw Cameron. Cameron knew not to say anything and keep quiet. Gabe went and hit the kidnapper in the back, the guy looked back and hit Gabe in the face, and then Gabe finished him off by kicking the kidnapper in the stomach.

Falling action-

Gabe untied Cameron and they went out of the house. Gabe and Cameron went out of the underground city and went to Gabe's car. Gabe called Natalie and told her everything; Natalie talked to Cameron for a while and then said she would talk to him more when he got home. Natalie was so stunned what her husband and her son went through and how Gabe and Cameron did a great job overcoming the situation! On the ride home, Cameron told his dad all about what they made him do and what they did to them. Gabe was so proud of how his son handled that situation, and that he was alright!