REALITY RENDERING

Prosperity renders according to the chosen RTRRT. Reality Rendering Tools are efficient methods in fast event production^a.

KINGDOM OF HEAVEN^b

Even childish fantasies can be used in prosperity rendering, in discovering one's personal abundance as well as revealing that any fantasies were precious personal initiations, as hidden within apparently childish projections.

TREASURE MAP

^a One can see events as producing "out of the blue" such as in Snow Crash instant magick, or as product of one's own soul kitchen, typically by imprinting a personal treasure chart into Akasa.

^b As different from local skies. The astronomic skies can nevertheless be advantageously used in avoiding the traps of global financial meltdown, as setting one's goals within an appropriate time frame. In periods of prosperity, there may be no use in forcing positive events, even superseding and overlapping with the good already created. Periods of darkness are advantageously enlightened and set in motion along the Time Track. The Time Track is an imagined blueprint of one's future activities, as a symbolical road into futurity, that nevertheless acts as real guideline which represents time in a persona space fashion. The first session may show a dirty road with many traps, murky horizons and difficult loops, while further sessions will open up to a celestial highway. One advantageously marks one's path with one's own presence, thus intervening with the RTRRT along the future path. One alights on an event in the future, in discreating negativity while installing a positive flash of futurity along one's path. One is thus the architect of one's futurity, which happens exclusively according to one's Plan, in unison with Divine Providence.

The treasure map is the magician's best asset. It is a pictorial representation of one's true will. Typically done on a piece of paper, it can be nevertheless advantageously carved into stone, in being imprinted as concrete or abstract event in second attention^c.

1. The treasure chart is a prosperity map that includes a solid green border as traced with one move^d.
2. A symbolic representation of the ultimate divinity^e is expressed over the top border of the map^f.
3. A realistic drawing of oneself or a photograph forms the central theme of the map.
4. One's image is put in relation to the object obtained^g.
5. A formula can be set as expression and affirmation, even Amen, typically at the bottom of the treasure chart, in expressing one's confident intent towards a given goal.
6. In order to become Amen^h, one's confidence is distilled by an O5 session. One sits with eyes closed in attaining mind vacuityⁱ. In beholding the treasure chart as set before one, one sympathizes with the attainment of one's desired goal. In a timeless moment, one has already achieved one's goal^j.

^c The second attention or astral realm, the upper world that nevertheless coexists with material kingdom right now, right here. One may associate second attention with the fifth element. Bogeyman initiation deals with the eventual initiation as received on the astral plane, that is, in active dreaming. The sleeper awakens in dreams in order to give and receive initiation on another plane than mere physical.

^d Without taking the drawing hand off the desk. The thick green line forms a secure frame before any content is added within the treasure map. Green stands for Venus and thus prosperity. The frame is a magickal tool that definitely divides the kingdom of demons and chaos from our own creation. Nothing must be allowed to slip into our creative process, thus the frame not only symbolizes but also divides chaos and bad futurity from personal intent and good karma. Karma thus becomes a prefabricated futurity.

^e The representation of divinity is set under the upper border of the map, in keeping in mind that the inexpressible can not be represented at all. Useful as a sublime advice is setting the Name, possibly in Hebrew, as towering and blessing over the treasure chart. Let all be done on behalf of the Name. Eastern initiates will like to express their admiration towards the Sublime in a holy glyph such as Om. The more abstract the representation, the less the chance of demoniac elements mis-associating with divine creation.

^f The map can be scaled according to the five elements.

^g The object to be obtained is set into vivid relationship with its owner. The object in question being abstract, a sublime image of Godhead is set crowning and blessing over the top of the map. Note that we avoid "to be obtained" as a hardly advantageous formulation of one's Plan. We do not want something to be obtained; we obtain it.

^h Firm, affirmative and "coagulated", according to the O5 SOLVE ET COAGVLA formula.

ⁱ The best in using True Mind Distiller.

^j Akasa is activated, even by the "removal" of any influence from gross elements, which would suggest a heavy fate along with some unmovable obstacle from one's subconscious mind.

The NASA based zodiac is a precise astronomic tool in modern astrology: 22 zodiacal constellations, 16 ascendants, Cartesian house system and RTRRT future correction. << Much as old toys for brats, non-scientific zodiacs did only damage to racial initiation, in that humanity suffered from exorbitant superstition, false diagnosis and finally wrong heading. In the example of the WTC, there is no wonder that no one predicted, since Moon in Orion or Eris sitting in Cetus precisely on the NYC western horizon, were not even enlisted amongst the categories of whatever popular superstition was smuggled under the name of astrology. >>

Astrologers who were scientists sometimes sensed a need to define things as they were. The scientific thought is also called magickal since magick is science in its most distilled form. Thus perhaps alluding to due east or at least aspiring at one, the term "east point" was coined in order to at least partly make up for the errors that were felt in perusing fake ascendants. The east point was to take precedence over the ascendant as miscalculated by astrologers, but that of course never happened, partly because it was miscalculated itself.

REALITY RENDERING

REALITY RENDERING

Reality Rendering is conscious creation. One typically designs one's own life events, instead of succumbing to fate. One can begin designing events by enlisting them for inclusion within one's own treasure charts. The architecture of events is serious artistic fun as one is inspired towards painting one's own life aquarel with humor and gusto.

AUDIT

One's scopes, design purpose are not at all limited. Limiting one's aspiration was somewhere considered as virtue, but there is in fact no virtue in limitation, only death of aspiration along with a self-imposed bottom line.

LIMITS

Sweet limitation regulates ritual life. What is inside, outside and above ritual is personal power. In limiting one's ambition one is rather crippled than modest. Modesty implies lack of self importance such as in assigning impossible goals the very label of being improbable. In designing a limited universe, one leaves out the improbable, marvelous and infinite. Therefore true modesty is expansion towards encompassing all creation within one's own scope.

TREASURE CHART

The treasure chart acts as an enclosure in having one's dreams come true. We take special care in designing the uninterrupted rim of the treasure chart, classically as traced with a single bold fat deep green line. The hand never lifts from the designing desk until the whole of the frame is completed with the rich green cornice as encompassing our wishes come true.

LIFE DESIGN

One will of course tend to design many treasure charts for different purposes, but some will prefer one. Since the treasure chart is the design of one's lifetime and beyond, one takes extra care in perfecting its design. Any flaws and scratches may materialize with dreadful precision. The blueprint is what it says: a perfect copy of the event ahead. In hacking the matrix of events, we install our own events and eventually our private matrix. A great initiate will have one's own world, even loka, which perhaps explains as we as expands creation. In some sense, the initiate lives in a world of one's own, figuratively but eventually even literally.

MAGVS

Copyright © 2009 by Klaudio Zic, all rights reserved.

<http://www.lulu.com/astrology>

ASCENDANGEL

The angel of the horoscope rises at due east. For this epoch we have sixteen ascendants rising at east. The star pertaining to due east is the messenger or angel of the ascendant.

MOVING WITH THE MOON

The magus had always a great respect towards the stars, in avoiding the many zodiacal traps of the past. In knowing that the Moon travels a zodiac of its own, the magus adjusts to Moon in Auriga for his wandering, much as an initiator would use Moon in Sextans for masonic initiation.

TRUE MIND

True mind is all things magical in itself. Perhaps it starts with a glimpse at not thinking. By “mind” we actually do not address anything thinkable at all, rather mindful of self respect. False ego will of course try and debase one's spiritual practice, mock at one's initiation in suggesting deprecated zodiacs, obsolete grimoires and bad company. False ego, the devil and bad company thus may be tied within the same sack. In discretion, even O5, we sometimes tend to bundle negativities in order to collectively mark them for deletion. In tearing false ego apart, one knows that negativities entwine as coupled in pairs, even yin yang, lingering as the binary DNA of illusion. The tree of illusion does not have its roots in heaven. False ego will make use of whatever little imperfection one hosts as part of one's ego complex. There is no little imperfection, actually, since in praxis, these so-called little imperfections are the weakest, and thus most dangerous, rings in the chain. The magus works towards self-perfection, which stands for sublime elemental balance. Taking for example the Mars Jupiter aspect, the magus is always in trine and never in square. Charity is not stupidity or lack of self-respect. Severity is not cruelty.

ACADEMIC ZODIAC

The Academic Zodiac may have been partly known to our forefathers, however, at least as concern Europe, it is the first inspected and sealed magical system as based on the real stars. In former epochs, the magi used fabulous but imprecise zodiacs, even fixed ascendant sets. Thus, in determining the zodiac, one does not forget to assign a due ascendant set for the epoch. Aquila rose for Carl Gustav Jung as portent of Alfred Adler, whose surname means the eagle. The constellation of the eagle rose at the birth of the American nation just after Serpens Cauda, the default ascendant of the USA. Aleister Crowley had a slightly more complex ascendant offer since his Hydra ascendant could possibly brush by Canis Minor and Monoceros, thus perhaps offering an ascendental triplet as owned by this Author. In the special case of Hydra, Monoceros and Canis Minor, one can enjoy the triune influence from three powerful ascendants. Monoceros is the last unicorn of the British royal family, while Canis Minor is the ascendant of George Bush. Hydra often stands for voodoo, kundalini or even black arts.

Real Time Reality Rendering Tools FAQ – Instant Magick for Everyone!

Copyright © 2007 by Klaudio Zic, all rights reserved. <http://www.lulu.com/astrology>

Instant magick has never been so available over the Internet. The RTRRT are marching in, shyness and morbidity are marching out!

★ What are the RTRRT?

The real time reality rendering tools are simple methods in instant personal magick.

★ Can anyone achieve results in record time?

Everyone can achieve fast results. Students had immediate success while experimenting even only after an hour of initiation. You may consider yourself a master when you obtain results in minutes. Half an hour will do but Snow Crash acts even within fantastic 5 minutes! Days or hours are excellent timing while obtaining a good rendering in months may be considered fair result.

★ Can I start now?

You can start today and obtain results immediately.

★ Where can one perform instant magick?

A favorite place is ideal for the evocation of the cosmic secretary but any place will do. In O5 we recommend to open one's eyes on a pleasant scene rather than a depressing one. Cascade is ideal for crowded places like airports where one has to perform magick in a hurry. In a confused urban environment, Cascade is always at hand like some sort of light saber for the Jedi master. Nature may prove the best environment, generally speaking.

★ Does time mater?

Time does not seem to matter when it comes to instant magick. However if you follow tradition then you are welcome to allow time do its work for a while. It is all upon you.

★ What are the prerequisites?

None! Well, you might have some visualization experience. Perhaps you can keep a calm or empty mind for seconds or even minutes. General enthusiasm is welcome with strong intent.

★ What is the cost?

The prices of the publications are in fact meant to be donations. The cost of a live delivery may amount to incredible sums considering travel, hotel room and commodities.

★ Where were the peripatetic deliveries staged?

The RTRRT were traditionally delivered in Venice, Italy in “peripatetic” fashion. Students traveled for 15 hours to have a three-day delivery, so count on a similar possibility somewhere in the motley future. The Venice files with inspiring locations are available as free download from the site. We used the sacred gateways and bridges to initiate our peripatetic “padawans”. Instead of a hotel room, we went to secret courtyards while having fun in the open sea of the lagoon with its quiet islands. All the locations in question are rather unknown even to the locals as we choose mystery and magick rather than banal staging for our peripatetic deliveries. Venice of course shifts the assemblage point of the initiate. The delivery often happens as friendly chat across the Venice bridges. Groups were mainly invited to a little town near Padua, Italy. The RTRRT used to be a formal delivery with so much paraphernalia and yogic staging but we discovered we could initiate in an informal manner as well with excellent results!

★ Do we have to purchase a series of books or just one?

One RTRRT book is enough, usually the latest upgrade. It may not contain all the material but it will surely encompass all that is needed to perform instant magick right now!

★ Who or what performs instant magick for us?

Intent performs magick. True Mind performs magick. The silent mind performs magick. Something intimately our own that has long been denied open air performs for us.

★ Do we get assistance?

People who contacted us via lulu.com internal messaging service got assistance. We gave assistance though USENET newsgroups as well as via e-mail, telephone and in person. The initiate is generally entitled for assistance as well as welcome to ask questions.

★ Is it legal to chase one’s dream?

It is perfectly legal to literally discover one’s true mind through active practice of positive goal-setting as well as RTRRT Wishwheel programming and the P.C.S. along with O5.

★ What is next?

We may produce and publish a new powerful method for the “year of the antichrist” 2007. We feel it in the air but it has not materialized yet. Surprises are around the corner...

SUMMER 2007

The Real Time Reality Rendering Tools have joined¹ hands with Judeo-Christian values in the summer of the Antichrist 2007. As Venus enters Sextans and Hydra we have made our duty to sanctify the magick we have so generously made available for the benevolent initiate.

INTRODUCTION

The following is a further initiation into the RTRRT. The Real Time Reality Rendering Tools are special mental techniques designed to change personal reality³. RTRRT initiation enables one into changing the course of events⁴ by creating one's own events.

¹ We were tempted to render the passage a 'crossed hands' as crossed hands signify respect at least in old Egypt and China.

² According to the theme of the initiation, "Intend" would be a better title. 'Ask' has a peculiar sound and is more readable. Intent is a magickal predisposition, true mind itself.

MATRIX TABOO

One should not change the course of events. One may feel incapable of changing the course of events, as if this course was unchangeable.

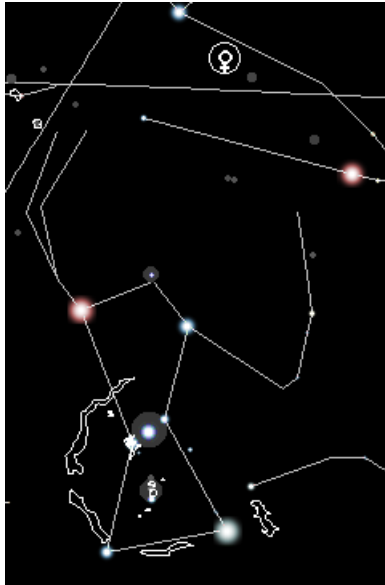

UNFLAGGING INTENT

Having a definite, clear, as well as sublime goal is already an oath, initiation and intent.

³ Changing reality at will implies free will. We proposed astrological analysis of one's future before any solid decision is made in order to change it. Why change something that we do not know? As expectable, future changing is full of apparent paradoxes. If I change the future, was it prophesied that I would do so? If so, did I change the future at all?

⁴ Any events for that matter. This opens the discussion centered on black magick. Is it ecological to spread information that can be used within the black arts? The challenge is open as a good shield protects the magician from failure. This shield is good god or true mind itself. True magick is possible only for true mind while the black arts may only permute elements. There is no Holy Spirit in the black arts, no 5th element. The author received the basis for O5 from a lineage dating back to Ramakrishna and is as such

O5IRIS Initiation – The Stargate

Copyright © 2007 by Klaudio Zic, all rights reserved.

<http://www.lulu.com/astrology>

The Orion Stargate is the intersection between the ecliptic and the galactic equator. The Stargate is thus a special part of the Milky Way. The gate serves as escape for the earthbound soul in ancient initiatic rituals. One's soul feels naturally pulled through the Stargate and towards distant galaxies of which some are not of this world.

One feels immersed in a dirty reddish glow unable to escape the pull of matter, hell and the devil below. For a split second one can even become the red devil itself in all of its infernal glory.

...

It is very hard to meet someone that really expects to go to paradise or at least some sort of hell much as it is very likely that the future corpse helps death to the extent that there is nothing left for death to do while so generously helped by its very victim.

O5IRIS Initiation

As the lack of an abstract goal finally attracts the being towards death by false ego, it is the purpose of the O5IRIS initiation to provide such an abstract goal as immortality.

Introduction

What a strange name! And yet the RTRRT are the simplest path to instant magick ever invented. We did not invent them all by ourselves, as there were hints from Egyptian and remarkably from Tibetan occult lore. The first technique was developed some 20 years ago under the working name of Oberon 5. O5 has a Tibetan root with some European upgrade. We used “sphere magick” as prophesied by Franz Bardon in order to root Oberon 5 into its proper place, the astral domain. Centering is known in the martial arts much as in Chinese Taoist alchemy. The alchemical cauldron :|||:| in the body is activated by meditation in order to produce the secret manna that made itself recently known by the name of ORME.

TIME TABLE

“No I don’t want it any more” mixes with “I wished you asked me that twenty years ago.” or “I knew that it was now or never”. So being now or never we invented the RTRRT to make that wish download for you from the astral domain right now!

Wishes that are granted over a time-period may mature as we often learn from sacred books. Then again, the answer from the astral domain may come too late. One may be already married, to use a familiar example.

In the example of a married man, the “wish come true too late” can even cause much trouble. Optimizing for timely download from the astral domain is one of the specialties of your new Personal Cosmic Avatar. Just say “optimize” to your Avatar and be sure to mean it!

A wish coming true too late may be classified as trouble. In our simple beginnings, there was talk of “alpha” when a positive manifestation took form much as the negative occurrence was labeled “beta”. In our example, we would talk of an alpha manifesting too late as beta. What good is a toy bicycle when I need a new car? I would make great use of those plastic toys in my early years but right now, I need other stuff. It is most discomfoting to have childish dreams come true when you are too old. Then again sometimes it is wonderful to have your childhood dreams come true at any age. It all depends on attitude.

¹ One must understand that one commands the personal secretary no matter the closeness or even her advanced initiation. This makes one close to God or rather akin to since God commands both you and your cosmic secretary. So much for the theology of personal secretaries.
