Danielle and Emily's Story

Is she here?

Let her stay.....

Yesterday my parents told me I was too old for an imaginary friend and that I had to let her go. They found her body this morning, never judge a book by its cover else she will find you.

She used to be my best friend, my only friend, the only one who understood what I had to say. Her name was Emily, she had crystal blonde hair and front fringe, she cut my hair once we looked like twins and we did everything together and never parted, my parents didn't like Emily ; they couldn't see her so therefore she wasn't real but she was real to me, she was the only one real thing I ever had in my life but my parents didn't understand, they never understand.

We never used to fight, we were like sisters, always stood up for each other and never let each other feel pain it was the most amazing friendship I've ever had. My mum dropped the whole Emily's not real act and left us alone but the one day Emily never up, I don't know why , she just wasn't there, maybe she was ill? Maybe she was busy ? Emily was never busy ..... where is she

Emily didn't turn up for 1 week or 2 week, it just got longer and longer I've begin to forget what she looks like, my sister Emily was always there for me when I'm sad and she not here ..not any were .i feel alone, I feel helpless and I feel like I'm not meant to be here without her . Will she return?

I didn't want Emily to go, maybe she heard my mum tell me she's unwanted' and maybe I upset her somehow? Or maybe she doesn't want to be my friend anymore, I don't mind. I just miss her.

It was cold wintry night and I went to bed I was half asleep but could still hear the winds in my surroundings the trees were tapping my window like it knows me the wind was whistling at me like I was pretty the air was making my cold like I was a microwave there was a lot of noise just for this one night I felt alone and scared I needed Emily if I called her maybe she would come? Emily, Emily, are you here? 'no answer ..... no reply ..... no Emily, she gone for good but gone where?

Scratch – scratch - squeak – bang – all these noises were surrounding me I was still half asleep so I didn't pay much attention I just thought it was bobby my cat or Archie the hamster but it carried on for a while and then suddenly stopped, no wind, no trees, no nothing , it sounded empty? I was able to sleep but I didn't want to.

The next thing I know I hear footsteps; fast footsteps like someone running but running toward me. It's getting faster and faster by the minute but then they stop, my bedroom light turns on and I see nothing. I open my eyes and still see nothing there nothing around and no sound its probably all in my head so I go back into bed but I turn the light off and shut my door, listening for sounds and footsteps and hear nothing, look around for someone and there no one so I can rest and go to sleep.

I've shut my eyes and I'm going to sleep that I've looked around and there is nothing I listen and there nothing so stop being so scared I'm scared of my cat too that how much of a wimp I am but I'm going to sleep and my eye are closed . Closed my eye are staying closed.

Until she realised that she opened her eye and it was getting colder then she closed her window but it was still cold until she realised that there was a black figure in her room.

The next morning she realised that there was red blood writing on her wall she then read the writing and there was the name Emily at the end of the writing.

So then she got up and out of her bed but she found foot step on her floor so she followed the footsteps it led down stair and there was a basket of food she then realised that there was a note addressed to her so she took the note and she put it her pocket.

Then she went back up stair to read that note it said on there she had to follow these instruction if she wanted to see her sister so she followed the instruction and then the last one said to go outside tonight.

So when it came to midnight she went outside and there was the same black figure she said hello to the figure and she hello back she said that it was Emily but she told everything to her but she had to go her parents' bedroom light was on she disappeared and so then she had to get back into the house before her parent sore her.

So then she went to her bed and she closed her eyes again she never open them until she the next morning she woke up to find that her parents came into her room.

Her parents had something in there and they just gave it to her and the next thing was that she got a message on her phone saying see you tomorrow in the room.

So the next morning when her parents left the house they looked the doors so Emily had to figure how to get in so I climbed into the garden and Emily got onto the roof and knocked on the window .

I had to talk to her but she was so shocked and I had to tell her stair from the beginning but then the parents knew that something was up with her so just left but before I did I said to her that I'm not dead.

her parents just didn't believe her so then I tried to her but she just locked her room and there was chains on her window but she had the key so I just waited outside.

It was so dark so cold I just thought I have to go she not going to see me anymore.

So then came to a week she looked out her window but Emily wasn't there so she was all alone her room for that week her parents came into her room.

She then got whacked around her face by her parents because they thought that she was seeing someone so had to lie to her parents so that night her parents went outside they pound nothing but they do remember killing someone in there garden but who ?.

So the parents went back inside the house and they got drunk so when they came up the stairs the keys dropped on the floor so then she could get the chain of the window then Emily came back that night to her so then I climbed on to the roof again to see me again so when I was in her room I could see all photo that were on the wall and I said to her that I'm staying for the night in your room she had the most happiest face ever.

So as the night went on I told everything to her about her parent killing me but then I said her that your parents killed this other young person and they buried her in the back yard.

she just had to hug me so tightly that she did not let go but her herd something so hid under the bed her parent were still drunk but they left the room again I said to that I was so tired so then i was asleep.

until the next day came she had to wake me but she couldn't so she put me in the cupboard until the time was right her parents were still asleep so then went down stair to grab some food for Emily she was so hungry that she did not eat for 2 weeks.

so then I stayed for some more weeks at the house it was like being sisters once again having the fun that we had Emily was always there for her I was the only one who understood the situation that was going on.

As the weeks went on I had to realise that we were just like sisters for ever so then we just stayed at the house until the parents went out and then we can go out as well to do something fun but her parents said no.

so then she went back up stairs crying her eyes out so then I went up stair as well but she didn't want me in there so I just stayed outside the door. She said to Emily can you come into the room so I went into the room she was still crying so gave her a hug she finely stopped crying.

So Emily said her to come with me so we went out the window and then we went over the fence door we went for a walk so I said to her that I was out of town for couple of week and I came back but was I was busy I didn't have time to text you.

The one thing she wanted to know why were you out of town but I could not tell her but she wanted to know so badly so as we walked on I stopped I saw something in the trees so it looked like a person wearing a black jacket so Emily said to her that I have to get you home.

So when we got home her parents got so angry at her so I had to disappeared some were else so that they couldn't see me so I just walked away from the house it got so cold outside but I had no were to go though it was like being frozen at the middle of the night.

So here me thinking why am I outside in the cold I was so frozen and so I walked back to the house to if the argument was finished but they were still going on about me saying that I'm not real they are saying that I'm a ghost so I had to go to the house I ran as fast as I could so that I could get the room she got put there for no reason so I got in there so Emily started hugging her she couldn't stop crying so Emily stayed for the night with her in the bed I was still cold as anything.

So the next day it was morning I was still with her she was hungry so Emily went downstairs to get some food for her I got some food I went back up stairs I got back in the room her parents were in there so I stayed out of the way so the parents of her went out for the day she was not allowed to go out but Emily said to her lets go for a walk so that we could chat so we walked all day but she just didn't look very happy so I had to cheer her up she got so happy when I was making her laugh so we got back to the house.

Her parents were still out so we had the house to our self so went round the house to see If I remember things about the house I felt so alive so I looked at photos Emily and her had picture together but the parent ripped me off there so I got angry but I had to keep calm so Emily still liked her as my friend to me we were just both happy but her parents still didn't see me but they came back early so I had to disappear from here but I had to finish something first so singed for her before I went but I won't forget that time we had today.

But her parents just started shouting at her for no reason so I walked away I will come back when it is the right time I can show them that I'm real but I think that something happened to me that night that why I was a black dark black shadow but Emily was not afraid so the next day I went there she looked bad I had to ask her what did they do to you talk me they had done everything to her so I stayed with her her eyes would not stop closing so the parent were still home so I went to chat to them they looked so angry but I just had to do it.

They looked at me thinking that I'm real so they said that they killed me but I told them that you killed my friend but I'm not letting you kill my new friend I don't care what you do to me but you are not putting your hands on her or I will call the police so you better think before I do something to you but they just ignored me .

So then things got started we talked more about all things that happened that night but they took it too fair so then they started punching me to the ground then they took me too the roof I think that what happened to the other but they were going to pouched me off there but Emily was hanging on the roof bit to hold on long enough so then my hands were slipping but then she came so we were both going to die but I would not give up yet .

She grabbed me back up and we had to get out of the house but they stopped us from doing that so we stopped they just looked at us thinking is that Emily so I spoke to them they were shocked that it me but they were not sorry for what they did to the person that is in the ground dead but they said to us that they didn't do it but I don't believe that so I took them outside to show them what to that person but they waked me I was down on the ground bleeding out but then I could hear the police they came they took them away from Emily and her.

But that day on I was never real I was a friend and sister to her but she thought that I was real in her life but I'm still with her no matter where she goes I'm there with her I was gone when her parents killed me but she didn't realize that so I was along dead but Emily would be following her all the way but the last thing I said to her that I was real in her dream but she won't forget that so then I was gone but I was really gone I was real I stayed with her I was her sister for the whole time.

So then we had proper parents who cared about us we lived there we both had the same room we put up all the memories of us on the wall we sore the old parents they were locked up for good but we had a new life if she got scared in the night I would hug her for the night I sang songs for her it was just like being sister again.

Never to be seen again but that very day the same thing happened again but with a different family two more people were killed to death.

So we not killed we had the police on our side and were never hurt again at all but were still sister we forever we had a happy ending nothing happened again but when the night came we could hear something it was coming from some were else which we were still hearing it was annoying it gave us a headache so I went to this place I told them to shut up but they ignored me so I went back to the house to stay with my sister who was just so sleepy i went out the door but i said that i would text her later saying that I'm going out but i will be back but when i came back she was still a sleep so i got some food for myself i went back up the stairs she was awake so I gave her the food so then it was time for me to sleep but hen I could hear things it woke me up she came to me she just said to what happened she thought to herself, eyes widening. "Who whispered my name?" I passed out for a day or 2 I was not great I was still passed out she found the whack that I had on my head then she went to the police to tell them that Emily still had the whack on the head when they did it to her.

Emily's Dark Tale

It all begins when I'm at collage and I'm walking the dark hall of the collage it was so creepy that thought that I heard footsteps behind me so I started running every where I was screaming.

The next thing I noticed is that there are children standing still in the way and I thought that there was something in the way so walked through the children and there was blood on the walls.

So I just screamed again and then I heard foot step again but the children said to run I was like why because there were so many clowns in the way so I turned away so I continued on walking.

So as I continued on walking I saw this door which did not have a door number so looked through the hole on the door and all I could see was dead bodies on the floor so as I walked in to the door.

They came towards me so I screamed and I tried to get out of the room but by the time I got to the door it was locked so I was trapped in the room so I sat down in the corner by all the dead bodies .

Bye then I was passed out and then they put me on their back and I was like trying to think where are they taking me I was so scared that I just grabbed something out of my pocket and I put in the clown leg and then he dropped me to the ground I was covered in blood and then I started running for my life.

Then ran into this room to if I could get single for my phone but I could not so I had think so I went back out the room and I climbed to the top of the place to see what was going on all I could see them bring more people to kill.

So I carried on walking the place and I thought that I could kill them myself but no so then I thought I'm so stupid why don't I just get a giant chainsaw to kill then.

So I adventured on into the place and I finally found what I was looking for the light switch so that I could see where I was going and then I had to adventure on to see if I could find the chainsaw.

So I continued on walking and I sour one of the clowns so I had to hide from him so as he was gone I sour a door which had a number on the door so i went into the room and I sour the biggest chainsaw in my life but then I had to get to all the clowns into the room so I made some loud nose so they could hear it and as they came I started chainsaw up and I stared killing them all but the best bit was that I covered in blood so I stared to get out of the place I sour children coming toward me with knives in their hands so I stared to kill them as well so then I was finally out this hunted collage of doom.

I was finally at home when I heard something coming toward me as I was sitting down and I turned around there was a clown with a big hammer and he stared killing me I was dead by the time when the parents came home and they never knew what happened to be continued .....

Dream going out in Town

My dream started by going to town with my friends and we saw these guys selling stuff and I went over there to see what they got but they just had rubbish things.

Then later that night we wanted to go for a drink so I took my m9 pistol with me just in case anything happens at night.

Then we came out and saw someone with guns so I went over there and they started shooting so I started shooting well my friends took cover then they got away but there was a person with a shotgun so he said drop the gun so I did.

Then he shot me and I went straight down on the floor and my friends came over to stop me from dying and someone put their hand on my tummy to stop the bleeding then Meg was calling an ambulance but they didn't pick up so they had to think of something else before I died they just took me home and flicked me up to my place.

The day I was feeling better when they took the bullet out but I just had to rest for a couple of weeks before I could go out again and they hug me and I went back to sleep and my friends stayed to keep me care me for the couple of weeks.

It all begins in a house which looks like...

It all begin in a house which looked haunted outside the place. It was creepy that I felt like not going near the old place of horror. it was so dark.

It looked so old that I was thinking to myself that I'm going to go into to that place. It had an old loud door which it opened by itself, so then I went inside the old place.

I was so scared that I started shaking and as I was walking it was so dark that I wanted to scream to death and I wanted to get out the place so badly but it was like I was trapped in the place.

So it was so dark, dark in the rooms. It was so cold, cold in there but when I turned around there was a dark black figure in the corner of the room which made me scream.

So I had to get out of the room but it locked so I had to stay in there for the night. It was cold and I was lonely for the night which made me tired so I was asleep.

The next thing that happened to me was there was something coming towards me it was like someone was breathing on me and so I just kept my eye closed when it was coming toward me.

Then I just had to open my eyes to see it was gone before I could even see it with my own eyes it was cold but I had to get out of here so I went to the door, it was open.

So then I went out the door. it dark so I put my light on to see where I was going but I kept tripping up on my feet so then I was on the floor and there was just something coming toward me so then I was run-

It just kept coming towards me so but I just kept still. It came through me, it felt cold and black but I was strong a fighter the black ghostly figure which just creeped me out. I just went to another room.

It was just so cold. It's like it just keep following me everywhere that I go in every room that I could go in so I just had to have think right I'm going to fight it figure which I needed a glass and light so that could get rid of the black that was on the figure.

So then the black figure started running away from me but I running toward the person but he was so fast that I could not keep up with him.

So then I had to stop I had to catch my breath and then I was ready to catch to get the black person but then he just tripped me up so badly that I want to die but I tripped him up he was down on the floor.

But then he tried to kill me but then he just kept trying to but he just had the knife in his hand and he stabbed me so then I had to get out. But I was bleeding to my death.

So then I got home and I was dying on the bed I was never alive again but then something happened to me when I was on the bed something magical happened.

Then I was saved by this person but it was the black figure which was just standing there I was getting so scared but I was dead but I wasn't dead so I was screaming and there was some more black figure hurting me.

But then Danielle and Chelsea die in the room as well by the figure well whilst I'm lying there in the room but I do save them in the end but it was not over yet so I had to grab something which could kill the figures that was in the room so I opened the window and the sun came to shine them away but they talked to me and they said that they wanted to kill me but I said no so they were gone for good but there was something bigger coming towards me it looked so scary but I just had to run and carried Danielle and Chelsea to safety but it was so big that I felt like being sick on the floor.

I just kept running for my life it was so hard but we got through it but then it just scorched us both but we just got out of it but we just looked dead but we were not then the people of the world just were staring at us but the best got off then we were out of here for good and we were just so a sleep some were but the two girl had just woken up and there me dying on the floor.

Then they just walked away from me. To leave me to die there all alone in the dark dead. No people around to save me I'm so dying in hell no were no how to go I'm just going to keep waking to my death. It was so sadly but I got through the pain but then this person just helped me for ever and ever I was healed to my life.

So then I was alive for ever, Ever I lived like an angel and I just stayed at home having fun and relaxing but then something just attacked me but I was screaming but it sharpest knife ever until they die for ever and then I'm going to move house for good and no one is going to follow me for good.

But then this person just followed me beyond me and I was getting scared so then something just creeped me and I just passed out on the floor lying there 5 days no water. No food around the place There is

Love Story

One day I was in the garden doing some gardening and some boy was so cute that he came over and he asked me if I wanted to go on a date with him and I had to think about it so I went back and I thought about it in my room then I got my guitar out and I started singing I think that I should tell him yes so that right we went out to a restaurant and talked about what we do so I said that I do singing then someone came in and asked the boy what are you doing with that girl so I asked he said that he was going out with another girl so I got out of the chair and I went out the door and I crossed the road and something started coming toward it was a car it crashed into me so my leg broke so my best friend of mine that new come and pick me up and took me home so I kissed him for the first time in my life so then I went to my room I was in so much pain that I went to sleep and my friend rung me up and it was Chloe so she said what's up so she said are you alright I said no I said that I was in pain in my leg so are you going to see me or not Chloe she said yes ok I will see you soon then ok bye.

Love Story in Town

It all begins when I'm going to town with my friends Jody, Danielle and Chelsea we were just walking around town.

Those boys were looking at me when we were walking around town I had a smile on my face.

We went into some shops there was the boys I said to the girls don't they look nice so I just looked around the shop he just looked at me I went blushed on my face I walked away but I wanted to know his name.

So when I got back home with my friends I could chat to them about the boy that had that great smile just gave me a smile which lighted my face up forever.

Then what happened was that someone came to the door it was the boy he had flowers in his hand he asked me out but I had to think about it but I asked him if I could have his phone number so he gave it to me .

So on with the story so when I got the phone I just got excited that I had a big smile on my face so then I was with my friends I told them all about the news they were proud of me so I was just thinking all about that boy.

So it was sweet and it came to the conclusion that I should call I'm going to ring him up to tell him if we could meet up but he didn't pick up the first time so he rung back up that night so I said to him that I would love to go out with you .

So we meet up tomorrow he just looked so cute so we talked about stuff then we just went about in town it was fantastic for the both of us so as we walked asked him what do you like doing as hobbies?.

So the few days it just got more into him each day I had to tell my friend they were just existed for me that I have a boyfriend in my life.

So then that very night I said to him can we go out for the night he said yes so I dressed myself up for that night I was so excited that I just had to meet him at the restraint it was so cold outside so as the night went on we had laughs it was just the best night ever of my life.

We did so much stuff together we had fun there was just so much to talk about but the parent kept coming up so I had to explain to them about everything but they would not listen to me so I said to my boyfriend can we go for a walk so we got out of the door.

The parents were trying to stop me from getting out the door but I ignored them i had to have a break from the parents so we had a long walk.

it was great that we had a walk after we had a something to eat it was it was so funny we had a laugh but when the parents kept running so ignored them for the day so we were still talking.

but then I had to ring them the parents to say I'm sorry for everything so everything was sorted out so i asked him if we could go to a restraint so he said yes so he said come around for 7:00 pm to go out so I got back home waiting for the right time to get myself sorted for the night i looked so beautiful right now.

so it was nearly time the special time I was waiting for him he had a car wow did you just get a car he said yes so i gave him a kiss and a hug so then we went for the night.

so it just went amazing so I went back to his house for the night I was so tired I was a sleep on the sofa i forgot to tell the parents but they would be fine about it the next morning came so had breakfast i was hungry so i had breakfast with him and we had our time so it got more fun so then i went back home and i text him all morning and the rest of the day it was so funny when we text each other.

My Story on a Ship

One day I went on a ship and my job was to feed the animals on the ship. I am in charge of the animals and I make sure that they eat and that they don't escape on the ship. The next day I noticed that one of the wolves have escaped and I have to find it. I saw one of the wolves so I had to run like hell, I just kept running from the wolf. I ran into Chloe and she shouts "why you are running?" I said there is a wolf behind you so scream then she kept still. Then one of the wolves came up to me and Chloe and it tried to eat me to bite my hand and it did bite my hand off then I grab something out my pocket and I put it into the wolf then me and Chloe went to the door and open it we locked the door behind us I noticed that there was guns room so I grab a shotgun and put it in my pocket then we walked out of the room then shot one of the wolf and took it to the vets once we got of this ship and we are going to look after the wolf at my place .

Nightmare Story

It all begin when I'm alone in a dark room were people die and that I went into that room this is a very dangerous place to be you never know what might happen to yourself in the place of doom.

The next thing that might happen to you is that your nightmares might come to life in your wildest dreams this were people die and they do not back not never they will just rot in hell the people that are in this room this very moment they will die to the death of their lives.

So people come to the room things happen to them they just cut into pieces so that no one can see them or were they are they are just cut into pieces this is just the start of this when more people, come the darker the place get in the room things come to life in the darkest times.

The next thing that happen is that's clown come to life with knives in their hands which they take their hearts out of the bodies of people which make them go to dead for life and the clowns get so funny that the children of the world come to the clowns to kill them all but the clown were making the children eat loads of sweets to make them feel so bad that they just had to go to the clown for just more sweets but then the clown just had to do it was so terrible but he had to to do it to them all the children of the world.

The next one was the wolves which come out in the night to catch there pray of the night but the wolf had to wait it was in its normal form were it is just wondering though the streets of the town but he just spells the stickiness of the people there were so many people that just wanted to eat them but it was not night yet so he had to hang around the street so until it was night it was time to do it but he just wanted to go round the town when he was a wolf and all the people were in their houses for safety but the wolf just broke down all the doors so then he went round every house he just felt the blood and the goodness of the people that WERE IN THERE HOUSE WHICH WAS GREAT FOR THE WOLF SO HE JUST HAD TO EAT THEM he was not finished yet he had to eat the people in this place now were people are working so then the wolf was not killed in the end so he went every where for people to eat you never know where it could be next so warned for good but then he was seen by someone in the town but he just got eaten for good never to be seen in the street but he did not have a name but it was one of us in this room who will be dead for ever.

So then there is dolls who girls play with but these were no normal dolls they ones were they would just kill all girls that had a doll in there room they would just go and hunt girl all-round the world every girl had doll in there room so the doll would move around but the girls would not notice that so the dolls went down stairs to go the kitchen to grab things which they would not understand the girls who had them all the time which just freaked them out for good so the girls were screaming so that the doll would break but the dolls just had a big line down there face but they would not stop they started killing the girls in the room so when there parent came home they would be dead as well there were so many dolls that everyone was dead in the room blood all the place every one was dead all-round the streets but there was just a boy coming to the house but there was just doll staring at the boy so he started running but the doll just got faster to the boy so he was dead on the street so all the dolls were covered in the blood of people that died and they moved the bodies to where they could eat them for good and that there was no one left in the empty

Zombies were the most dangerous and they would just eat them all but less start from the beginning of the zombies but they were in the ground where they belong in the dark hole where they were not seen for ever but when people and children were walking up there to see thing it got all deadly for the night but it had to be so dark that people could just here the people in their homes to be safe so they just had block all the windows in their homes which were not safe for ever they started coming

The people were so scared but the zombies where so loud that the people could hear them all the time which creped them out that the children had to be with their parents that them even had to get something Sharpe to kill them with but then the zombies were coming to the homes of the parents but he zombies did not stop walking they were so dead looking but they got so hungry for things that they want to eat but it was people that they wanted to eat for the night so they went to every home they broke the wood so they could get in there to eat them all to their death in the homes but there were just so many people to eat in there so they were so tasty for the zombies.

for the night to come for the darkness of the world so they started splitting going to different places to kill the people and to eat them as well so that they just taste so good for all the blood that in the people and the children which was better for zombie and the wolves which rip their bodies apart to pieces that you don't see no more in the bodies but the clown just had to wait for that one time which was just great for the children they were just walking down the street to see the clown the had balloons for all the children who were still waking so slow but they were so great with their smile but the clown changed his face to an evil face for the children which made them scream but they wanted the balloon so badly that the clown put it fire which made the children burn to their death for ever in their life more children just came more fun with the clown but the clown just got a knife out and started killing them as well for more fun the clown got for the children he was so funny the clown just had to walk away but it started running to the children as well but they were so slow that they had to die it was funny round the house to the whole place was boogie trapped so when the girls wake up they just go round the house but they will be half asleep in the walk and they had to go back to their bed but they were falling asleep now so the dolls had to get them back to the bed so that they could finish the job for the night so dolls got the job done but the dolls had to make them self-scary with the line going down there face it just creped them out but it just fun what the dolls do they trapped the kitchen the living room and the bed room so there was the plan but the dolls just to get back to the room but even they got stuck in the trap but they got through so they were back in the room with the girl but then it was morning so the girl woke up and she tripped on the rope so that the trap started working so the people just died so good that they were gone so there was just girls every were that they had to die so every single person came out of their homes and the wolves zombie clowns came out and the dolls had finished there thing but then there just more people in the city that they didn't know so they went round the world just more to kill them they just kept coming to them more blood more bodies on the road more thing for the Nightmare are ended now they are dead for goo they are not coming back .

Piranha Story

One day I went to Water Park so that I could get a job there so I went to the person in charge of the place he said yes but you can do the music ok see you tomorrow so I went around and I think I am going to like it so I went home and got some music ready for tomorrow that day came and i woke up and I went to the water park and I set my music up and I think that the people like the music so I left the music playing all day I saw someone that I knew very well it was Maddie she looked at me and she said is it really you yes is it let me guess Emily right yep that's me so what you doing here I said I am doing the music for the Day ok see you later yep I will see you when I get home tonight why I have a surprise for you just come by will you I am going to sing for you I will probably think that it bad so that night I started singing to her but I had to show her something in the lake so I went to the lake but something came to my leg don't know what it was so tried to get out but something just came to my leg it started biting my leg off so Maddie came to me and pored me out it was a piranha was on my leg so we got out of here so then I went to her house for the night so the next day I was in pain that I couldn't walk .

Then I got out of here and checked the piranha out and they weren't there but I saw someone over there I shouted to her

I asked what you doing here she said I just sore space got away I wouldn't going there If I was you why because there is piranha in the lake step back did you get bitten by one yes I did indeed that night so the next day we went to the water park and we had to tell everyone no to stay long because there is piranha in pool so we waited for them then I screamed at them to get out of the pool so they did get out so I helped them out then I saw this little girl all alone so I asked the girl are you ok she said no so I asked she said she hurt her nee so I took the girl I asked the girl her name she said it was Amy I told her my name Emily so Amy asked what happened to your leg I said I got bitten by a piranha so told her that I would keep her and not let her to die so I picked Amy up and I got my gun out I shot all the piranha and that day I ended it so I took her with me and we got out of here with Maddie as well plus my music so the next day she came and lived with me Maddie.

School Dream

It was a school day I had my lessons as normal when I got to last lesson that was English so we did some work then the bell went I got out of the door and I saw dance group practice for this assembly tomorrow but I wanted to join them so I asked the teacher but she said no so I walked out and went home but I saw my best friend so I went over to her I asked what are you doing here I am here to tell you that Chloe was dead why she went to the girls toilets and she saw a monster was be in there but came back alive again ok I will go and kill them but if I'm not back in an hour call the police for me and big friend I know ok I am going in let do this I am going to the door and I saw the dancing group but I could hear something so I went in there and I jumped up to reach the top but something broke my hand so but both of my hand went to the floor so I was on the floor as well and I made the floor shake so the monsters came down I thought I had to run and get ready with the power place guns everything for when night the first thing was to get much my friend had sprained her wrist so be careful with her when go to the hospital I got my ankle checked out by the doctors we knew so much so I stayed for the night so when the morning came I was not going to school and so I got some sweets for myself and the next day I went home and I rung my boyfriend up to see if he could come over to mine to see me so I rung him up he answered me he said yes so he was on the way to me and I had to get myself up from my bed it was so painful but I got up and I was all sorted for this day I ended the day with my boyfriend so we just relaxed for the day and then he stayed for the night with me I was so tired that he put his head on my shoulder so we had a sleep to-

Song

It all begins when I'm on the floor. I've sprained my right ankle so I couldn't walk that much so someone came and talked to me. It was Demi, it was like she knew me. I told her that my name is Emily, I told her that I love music like pop and I DJ on my laptop. I told her that I was on the top floor that I wanted to get back up there to get it back but Demi said no that you couldn't get it because of your ankle but I told you that I need it for something just let me get it please ok go so I ran up to the top floor and I grabbed the laptop.

I unplugged the speaker which were so heavy that wanted to take them with me. They got too heavy and the plug was wrapped around my arm though I could not feel it so I just fell again but with the speaker on my arm I just couldn't feel it I just wanted to go home with the pain in me. "Ok Em at least let me take you home, lets go now why there is someone coming after me who is its my foster parents plus they have a gun so I can't go there but I have sister."

I left her there lets go and get her I will be 2 second bedroom now please Sister where are you I'm in the cupboard come out because I'm going to take you someone were in town plus I want you to meet someone as well before the mad lady come and shoot us ok we got there let my sister meet you demi so I told demi her name was Cornelia and that we just needed get out of here now before she come.

Witch Story

This story starts when I am over my house and some people come over to look after me and when it came to night time I went into the kitchen to get my pills the two people came into the kitchen I they were watching me so I quickly had the pills and went to my room the next day came and the usual thing in the night time.

Then I wanted to go out for the night they were stopping me so I just pushed them away but I forgot pills by the time I got back to the door one of the people had a Sharpe knife in there hand so I tried to get back inside but the lady sliced my leg open so I tried to run by the time I got on the ground I see this car coming toward me I knew who was in the car I started walking toward the car a friend of mine moved over and I got myself in the car she sour that I was bleeding so she gave me something to stop the bleeding I was feeling not great so the man started driving to a safe place then I told him that I wanted to go the bar place so he dropped me off an di went upstairs all the boys were looking at me so I went back downstairs but I felt terrible so I fell down the stair then my friend thronging the knives at them but they were dead but there was there was somewhere to kill so they finely came to me I told them that I was a witch as well how did they know that I was a witch because I had the book of spells and I read the beginning of the book and it just turned me into a witch so I went to have a look around and I see my boyfriend and I ask why are here he had a knife in his hand and he tried to kill me so I tried to stop him but he just stated coming toward me then he stabbed me in stomach then in the leg but he left the knife in the leg breath then I just stab him and he just died I lived with the witch family I helped them out with killing them but I had to heal myself back up.

Wolf Dream

One day I was with my mum and we were walking home from the shops. I saw some wolves in the forest and they started heading toward us, but I saw Katherine in the shops and the wolves went that way instead so i told my mum to run home and i told my mum that i am staying to help out.

Then i got into the shop and i get my gun out to shoot these wolves so i told Katherine to close the door and to open the windows also you can use this gun.

then one of the wolves got in and tried to get my leg he shoot it but they kept coming me and Katherine couldn't keep doing this so we had to be smart so we kill our self but something happened my boyfriend came to save my life and Katherine life but as he came all of the wolves and biting my leg i was in so much pain that i could not feel my left leg at all.

so we had to take me to my house so i told Katherine that she could come with me so she said yes so let go hold my hand now Katherine so that i can get up and we are finely home in my room and they sorted my leg out and the next day i had rested in my bed the next day i had some breakfast and when i got out the bed i went downstairs i saw my boyfriend i gave him a hug so we had breakfast together.

Love
