

THE MOVE

Chapter 1

One day in Washington there was a dad who had little money. The dad did not know what to do, so he asked his kind-hearted realtor, "What am I going to do?"

The realtor said, "I don't know. Wait what about I give you a house until you get enough back on your feet?"

"How will we pay for it?" the dad asked.

"I'll pay for it, until you get back on your feet. Then you can start to pay me back," replied the realtor.

The dad immediately went on his knees and said, "THANK YOU SO MUCH." The dad smiled! So, the dad went home after that and said to his family, "WE'RE MOVING!" The dad's little girls were depressed because they had to move away from their friends and family. The two girls' names were Katie and Ashley. The girls were twins. They were 15 years old and they both loved volleyball. They were really tall too.

The girls said, "Daddy why?"

“Because we’re in great danger from the government because we haven't paid our taxes. We’re fleeing to Utah. We'll be safe there," their dad said.

"This sucks!" the girls yelled and stomped their feet with enraged faces. So, the whole family packed everything, got in their car and drove away from their apartment. The girls cried, as they drove further away from the place they use to live in. They hated that they had to move. Soon the girls fell asleep. When they woke up they heard their mom say,

"We’re HERE AT THE AIRPORT YIPPE!" The mom smiled with the biggest smile ever. Ashley could see all of her teeth top to bottom. Ashley and Katie went into the airplane. The girls went to sleep right after they sat down and ate. The girls were dreaming about how they would be treated in Utah. Ashley dreamed that large girls were giving her swirls and picking on her. Katie dreamed she didn't make it on the volleyball team and her dad hated her because she didn't make it on the team. The dad made her move out. Katie saw that Ashley made it and Ashley got a $9000 scholarship to UCLA for being a great volleyball player. When Katie was looking at Ashley she all of a sudden heard someone saying, "Wake up." The ground started shaking and some other person said, "Katie, Katie, wake up." Katie was so scared that she popped out of her dream and woke up.

When she woke up she saw her dad shaking her like an earthquake and saying, "Wake up."

"I'm awake dad; you can stop shaking me."

"Sorry sweetheart." Dad replied. "Okay, hey can you go wake up your sister?"

"Daddy do I have to? She's so grouchy in the morning when she wake's up?" Katie said.

"Please sweetheart can you wake your sister up? Please?" He begged.

"All right dad I'll wake her up." "Ashley, Ashley wake up we're here in Utah."

"Okay, I'm so exited to see a different state like Utah," Ashley said.

Katie said, "What? She did not get mad at me for waking her up. Weird." So the girls got off the plane and saw a beautiful view. Then, they saw their parents in the car so they ran to the car and put their stuff in and left to find their new house. When they drove off the girls were looking at everything, like tourists that drank too much coffee. It took the family awhile to get to their new house in Utah.

Two hours later, they were finally there at their new house. The house was blue with a little black. The mom was smiling with happiness, and the dad was too. Ashley was happy and so was Katie. The whole family said at the same time, "This could be nice." Everyone went into the house and saw the most beautiful living room with a plasma screen T.V., nice couch, and a pretty picture of Mount Hood. Then, the whole family went into the kitchen and saw a pretty counter and a nice table, and the most sparkley sink ever. Right after that the family went upstairs and saw Ashley's room. It had a plasma screen T.V., a waterbed, desk, posters, and a nice computer. When the family got done looking at Ashley's room they went to see Katie's room. Katie's room had a big desk, lava lamp, couch, and a stereo. The girls were happy that they got their own rooms because at their two-bedroom apartment they had to share a room together. Next they went to go see their parents' room. It was the BIGGEST ROOM the girls had ever seen! Their mom and dad had a plasma screen T.V., a palm tree, a fan, and Jacuzzi. It also had a huge bed. The whole family was as happy as they could be.

CHAPTER 2

THE NEW SCHOOL

When the girls woke up, they took showers, combed their hair, and ate breakfast. The dad said, "girls are you excited to go to your new school?"

The girls spit out their cereal and yelled together "SCHOOL, Daddy do we have to go to school?" The girls complained.

"Yes girls, you have to go to school," said Dad.

"This sucks," the girls said screaming and yelling so loud that they were as red as a ball of fire. After all of that screaming the girls and dad got in the car and drove to the girls' new school. It was Walt Morey High School. When the girls got to their new school they both saw girls playing basketball. When the car finally stopped the girls saw this hunk that was being interviewed for being the best basketball player on the guy's team. The girls looked at him for a second, and then their dad said, "have a great day at school." The girls ignored their dad. Ashley had math class and Katie had Language Arts class. When Ashley got to Math class every kid started gossiping about how tall she was, so right after the gossiping the teacher came over by Ashley and said, "Hi I'm your Math and Science teacher Mrs. Jarboe.

"Ashley said "Hi" back to Mrs. Jarboe waving her hand and shaking her hand, nervously.

"Mrs. Jarboe said "sit wherever you like."

So, Ashley sat down by three girls that had a basketball in their hand. Then, right after that Katie went to Language Arts class and saw kids gossiping about her for how tall she was too. The Language Arts teacher came over and said "Hi! I'm Mrs. Christensen."

Katie said "Hi" back to Mrs. Christensen.

Mrs. Christensen said, "sit were ever you like." So, Katie sat down with three girls with basketballs and a guy with one too. Right after math class Ashley went looking for her sister Katie.

When Ashley was on her way to her sister's pod, she accidentally bumped into this girl that looked like she was Dorothy from the Wizard of OZ.

When Ashley bumped into the girl she knocked all the papers the girl was holding onto out of her hands. Ashley knelt down to the ground helping the girl pick up her papers. Then Ashley said, "I'm so terribly sorry."

"It's okay," the girl said.

Ashley said cracking up, "wow you look like Dorothy in the Wizard of OZ."

The girl said that's because I'm in drama club."

"Really cool can I join? Ashley asked.

"Sure sign ups are on Sunday," the girl responded.

When she got done talking to the girl she went into her sister's pod and Ashley said, "I'm going to join drama club."

Katie said, "Really cool have fun. I'm going to go practice volleyball."

They said at the same time, "bye sis."

Katie went to the gym and saw girls playing basketball. The girls saw her too. The girls just stared at her because she was so tall. The coach came over and said, “Do you want to play basketball for my team? Oh, and how tall are you?”

“My name is Katie and I’m six feet five inches and I don’t know how to play basketball.”

“The coach said let me see you shoot.” So Katie bended her knees and shot the ball and made it. She made the next three shots after that too. The coach was impressed by how good she was. The coach came up to her and said, “will you please play basketball for the team?”

Katie said, “I’ll have to see if it is ok with my dad.” Kate walked home. When she got home she said “Dad can I play for the basketball team.”

“Sure Katie that is a great idea, you’re tall and a great shooter you can do anything you like.” “Hey Ashley why don’t you join basketball too,” the dad said.

“Because dad, I’m joining drama club.” Said Ashley.

“Drama club! Are you serious sweetheart? Why don’t you join basketball team?”

“Because dad I don’t want to,” Ashley cried. The next day the girls went to school. They went to all of their classes and then Ashley went to drama club and Katie went to basketball practice. When Katie got to basketball practice the coach made the girls do some lay up drills. Katie was doing great. Then, the girls had to do passing drills and Katie was doing great. Then, the girls played a quick game of basketball. The score was 50 to 10, Katie’s team won. Katie was having fun. She was not the only one having fun, so was her sister Ashley whom was over at her drama class.

Ashley’s drama club was already in tryouts for a play called Romeo and Juliet. Ashley decided to try out for the part of Juliet. Her teacher was amazed at what a good actress she was. She decided right away that Ashley was perfect for the part of Juliet. When the girls got done with basketball and drama club, they went home and said it was a “Cool Day.” Then they went in their room and went to bed until the next day. Before Ashley went to sleep her dad said you’re going to play basketball, I singed you up.” Ashley sprung out of bed and said “why daddy why can’t I do my own thing?”“You’re going to play and you will like it ok honey? Dad replied. After school Katie and Ashley went to the gym for basketball tryouts because they had not made it yet. The coach would have to see how good they were before deciding if they’d made the team. Before they got to the gym Ashley asked Katie “why did you tell dad I wanted to be on the basketball team?” Why didn’t you just let me staying drama?

“What Ashley?” I didn’t tell dad to do anything, dad did it on his own. Right, I know you did it sister and I’m mad. When Katie and Ashley got done fighting they put on their uniforms and played basketball. The girls were not on the same team in tryouts. When the game started Katie got the ball and Ashley pushed her down and made a fowl. Katie fell again by Ashley and this went on through the whole game but they still scored a lot of points. They showed the coach that they were very talented even though they were pushing each other through out the tryouts. He decided they would both make it on the team for sure. When the game was over it was Ashley's team that had scored 40 points and Katie's team had scored 42 points. Katie and Ashley were bruised all over. Ashley was still mad at Katie for making their dad signing her up for basketball but knew there was nothing she could do about it for now. When they were done trying out for basketball the girls went into the locker room and put back on their school cloths and waited for the coach to come out and say who made it on the team. When the coach called Ashley in his office she got nervous. She went in his office and the coach said "Ashley you have made it on the Walt Morey Mustangs basketball team. Ashley screamed and yelled yes, yes. Right after Ashley got out of his office he called Katie to come in. Katie was nervous too. When the coach walked up to here said you have made it on the Walt Morey Mustangs basketball Team. Katie cried with tears of joy and happiness. When Katie came out of the Coach's office she went to Ashley. Then at the same time they said, "I made it. " they smiled at each other with excitement and joy. When the girls went home from try outs Katie went in her dad's room and saw her dad shining a trophy. Katie went up to him and said, "Why did you tell Ashley she had to be on the team." "She did not want to be on the team and you new it." "So why did you make her try out for the basketball team." "Because I new she was perfect for basketball not an actress at drama club." Well she thinks that I told you to make her play on the basketball team." "Please go tell her I did not ask you to make her try out for the team." Okay sweetheart I will I'm sorry." I also made it on the basketball team dad." "Really that's great now let me go talk to your sister Ashley." "Ashley I need to tell you that I put you on the team because I thought you would be perfect for this sport. Acting I didn't think was for you. But I should have asked you first before signing you up, I'm sorry." It's alright dad, I kind of like playing basketball now, I'm good at it and I made it on the Walt Morey Mustangs basketball team." That's great sweetheart, I'm proud of you and your sister." Soon after the talking both of the girls went to sleep.

CHAPTERS 3 SAD GIRL

They played their first game and won after school was over it was 52 to 63. Ashley had 16 assists and 32 points and Katie had 31 points. When they were done with the game they went to the locker room and saw this girl crying. So the girls went up to the girl and said “why are you crying we won you should be happy”.

“It’s not that it’s my dad he never home because he’s working and I’m at home all by myself all the time.”

“Really that’s sad”. “Hey, we have idea why don’t you come to are house and carved pumpkins.”

“Sure that would be fun.” Oh my name is Chrissie.”

“Cool, are names are Ashley and Katie.”

So the girls called their dad and asked him if she could come over and he said “yes”.

The girls carved pumpkins and had a great time. Right after all that fun they went to sleep. When the girls woke up they went to the championship basketball game. The girls were so excited that Katie practice so hard before the game that she broke her leg doing a lay up. The coach said “she can’t play she’s to injured.”

Katie was sad because she couldn't play in the championship game. So the game started and at the half it was 44 to 48. The mustangs were losing. In the 2nd half the mustangs had 56 to 59. The mustangs were still losing. When there was only five sec left with the score 78 to 80. All a sudden Katie came out with the mustangs uniform on. She said "let me in for 5 sec so we can finish this." The coach said "alright lets do this for mustangs." He also said "on a count of 3 lets say MUSTANGS!"

"1...2...3... MUSTANGS."

5 sec left and the Mustangs pass the ball to Katie from half court. Katie passes it to Ashley and Ashley shoot it from 3-point line and made it swoosh. The game was over the final score was 80 to 81. Katie and Ashley won their first championship game. 6 years later Ashley made it on the WNBA. She was at Oregon College. Same with Katie expect at Oregon state college. The championship game and its Oregon state vs. Oregon. "Let's do this sis." "Bring it on."

