Types of Weapons:

Infrasonic/Ultrasonic Cannon, a portable weapon targets someone through walls to remotely incapacitate and disarm them. *1.p.242

Military-style acoustic devices use multiple beams that can produce loud sound at a distance to one person, or a crowd of people such as in rioting. Active Denial System is one used by law enforcement or military. * 1.p.242

"Voice of God" acoustical weapons *2

Directed Stick Radiator uses a series of piezoelectric disks acting as speakers to amplify pulses through each disk. Can push a cow over on its back, causes strong pain and disorientation at different decibels. US Army uses Aversive Audible Acoustic Weapon. * 1.p.241

Pulsed Periodic Stimuli uses modulated frequencies of pulsed acoustic waveforms to subdue rioting crowds; perceptual changes, disorientation, and forced calmness. *1.p. 242

Infrasound weapons use low frequency to pulp internal organs, cause great discomfort, interfere with or stop activities. *1.p. 242

Acoustic Blaster has four explosively-driven sound projectors to cause severe chest pain. Can be used as an acoustic bullet where sound intensity falls off gradually at end. Similar to crowd dispersal system, made by Primex Physics International. * 1.p. 241

Infrasound causes disorientation, vomiting, nausea, bowel spasms or diarrhea, severe disturbance of internal organs, severe injury or death, temporary deafness, pain, discomfort, paralysis, or blindness. *1.p.240

Electric-shock such as soldiers have that is a pocket sized device to inflict pain without damage. *1.p.239

Ionization beams to allow "wireless transmission of high-voltage electric current". Ionization is when "atoms lose their outer electrons" creating a very good electrical conductor. *1.pgs. 237, 239

Tetanizing creates paralysis of skeletal muscles. *1.p.238

The USAF is creating laser ionization weapons. *1.p.238

Chirped Pulse Amplification uses more practical lasers. *1.p.238

Millimetre Wave Imaging (MMV) creates a wavelength far greater than what we naturally see that see in greater detail than x-rays. Body glows at this wavelength, even in the dark and through clothes. *1.p.308

Infrared sees heat of human body emitting IR radiation. *1.p.308

Strategies Used Against Us:

Social

- We are often interrupted in our conversations with others
- We have sudden passivity or are mysteriously kept from speaking our minds for no reason
- Repeatedly asked to do more than our fair share, while others don't do as much
- Our plans are interfered with (blocking us from success)
- Feel unnecessarily "ganged up" on
- Strangers seem to look our way and/or move into our mental/physical "space" too often/anxiety/feelings of being stalked/followed
- People seem to not listen to us as if tranced/don't respond caringly
- Seeming like people aim hostility at us that may not make sense
- Strange desires/fantasies of becoming something great beyond what we are presently capable of becoming as if Jesus/great musical or movie star (grandiose thinking)
- We are drained by people's presence/are overwhelmed by them
- Sudden isolation/not keeping up our healthy routines/friendships lost
- We are falsely accused, as in the workplace/nasty "office politics"
- Feel "watched" in privacy of our homes
- Victim of mentally abuse/beratement
- Our hopes fail/no help is available
- Friends/work associates turn on us unexpectedly
- Our attempts at gaining information are ignored/blocked/very late if any
- Neighbors/work associates are paying unusual amounts of energy "spying" on our whereabouts
- "Enemies" or unfriendly persons show up coincidentally in our awareness
- People often speak to us from a distance or move nearby to speak "to us" but do not seem to talk directly “to” us (mob-like commanding/commenting/hazing us somehow)

- We see many people who at first look like a lost friend/family member we haven’t seen in awhile
- When we share these strange occurrences we are never believed/thought “crazy”/shunned
- Continuous talking/never listening

Mind

- Clairvoyance/hold same thinking at same time/”channeling” spirits/déjà vu/predestiny/karmic thinking or belief patterns
- Our “attention” is drawn to similar objects when out on the street as if hidden messages for us only (i.e. similar car markings, bulletin boards)
- We “see” mental imagery/flashes of symbols/cartoon pictures/slide shows (hallucinations or visions)
- Our mind “tells” us what to do (“committee” keeps us too busy/rushed/nags us)
- Impaired/erased/forgotten/newly created memories
- Our minds or awareness seem dull/clouded over/suppressed ability to think and speak
- “Spirits”, UFOs or other strange forces “inhabit us”/make us write a certain way/take control of use of language
- “Talking to self” (homelessness)
- Some force seems to want to turn us into another “person” or personality
- Our minds seem withholding information we know we know (“senior moments” or gone blank)
- Someone speaks to us in voices out of mid-air to our heads or nearby (*3 Microwave hearing)
- Sudden violent or rageful outbursts/swearing
- Intense changes in mood

Romance

- Attitudes from others seem overly amorous (crushes when barely know someone)/quick involvements all too soon

- We marry someone we don't like
- Condescending/not appropriate/humiliation/publicly condescending
- Sexual dreams or changes in sexuality/dreams seems very real to us/profoundly disturbing or sudden
- Sensory perceptions seem confused/overly dramatized (i.e. colors "too full" of color, legs feel "too light" or body is too sexualized to your perceptions as if being a model in commercials, magazines)
- We profoundly "see" nude body imagery within "our minds"
- Thoughts to direct our amorous feelings toward someone we don't normally think about, or see feasibility of in regular daily living
- Long hours, pining for the "right person"

Law enforcement

- Jail time spent
- False searches and seizures/negatively reported about but as untruth
- Falsely accused/story not right/not being listened to/feeling sabotaged or "set up" truthfully
- Robbed
- Gangs

Body symptoms

- More gas than usual
- "Disrupted" nerves/jarred/leg bouncing in place while in sitting position
- Painful "radio transmissions" into eardrums causing immense and immobilizing pain
- Sudden dizziness or nausea
- Sudden racing heartbeat/breathing feels suddenly "suppressed"
- Overly exercised/feel its not enough/"thrashed" body physically
- Sleeplessness or sleep too often
- Won't shower/safety issues/strange thoughts about body
- Prickly skin/"crawling flesh"/unusual pressure by some unseen force seems to touch us in strange, disturbing ways

- Burning pain/shocks sent to skin
- Feels like sharp electricity “spikes” placed in or on body
- Sudden/unexpected heart disease when no other family member has had this (radiation)
- Ritualized or addictive behaviors
- Extensive skin damage/burns/dry flesh (radiation)
- Too warm/icy cold/may alternate continually
- Diagnosed as “hearing voices” and other mental illness
- Body feels “captive”/held down with forces causing us to feel “pinned” in uncomfortable positions
- Body is “moved against our will”/i.e. arms and legs moved with some strange forces
- Our eyes move as if by remote control/are “bulleted” across a room
- Our eyes “play tricks” on us/objects jump suddenly
- Senses seem tied to one part of the body, disorienting our awareness (i.e. eyes seem to “look” from lower points on the body, we “hear” from our legs, etc.)
- Sudden hunger (overweight) and normal diet/behavior won’t take off the weight
- Feeling like not wanting to eat (anorexia) even while feeling weak

General

- Objects seem to break too often
- Locks don’t work any longer suddenly
