How To Use This Powerful And Amazing Book

Lisa, following are the guidelines on how to use this personal, amazing and powerful book.

The great Zig Ziglar said it best when he said, you, Lisa Lutz, are ‘designed for accomplishment, engineered for success and you, Lisa, are endowed with the seeds of greatness.’

Lisa, I have specifically designed and published this book as a tool for you.

Lisa, you deserve to live the life of your dreams. You see, when you were born, you came into this world as a miracle. The chances of Lisa Lutz ever being conceived was over 10 million to 1. Let’s go ahead now, at the beginning and say it like it truly is.

Lisa Lutz is truly a miracle.

You are going to use this book as a guide to build success structures and formations in your automatic, subconscious mind so that you will always live the life you’ve always imagined and fulfill your destiny and purpose for being born.

10 Powerfirmations

Lisa, I encourage you to take this book with you everywhere you go. Let it be your constant companion. Every time you have the opportunity, take out this book and start feeding your automatic, subconscious mind these powerful, positive thoughts that are going to always take you over the top in your life.

Lisa, there are a few things that I know about you. Here they are.

Lisa Lutz deserves to live her dreams now.

You, Lisa, are powerful beyond even what you've ever believed about yourself.

Lisa, you are gifted in unique ways.

You can and will fulfill your purpose, Lisa.

Daily Usage of This Book

Before you begin, as well as, while you are doing your 'Powerfirmations', always think, 'I am saturating and marinating my mind.' These thoughts open neural pathways to allow the Powerfirmations to be deeply rooted, quickly.

To get the most of this book, do the following:

1. Choose one affirmation per day.

Lisa you will soon notice that each Powerfirmation is written in the second and third person. That's exactly how they are designed and intended. You think of yourself from all three personal perspectives. This is one feature that sets this book apart from traditional affirmations. It is part of the effectiveness of communicating to the whole mind'.

2. Read it aloud at least three times a day. (1 minute, 45 seconds)

You can read it aloud three times in one setting or you can space it out during the day. Both ways are very powerful.

3. To totally 'immerse' yourself with a powerful mindset for success, read it aloud three times per setting and do it four times a day. (7 minutes a day)

Best Times to Read Your Powerfirmations

When you awake, again between 11 a.m. and 2 p.m., when you get off work (before dinner) and before you go to bed. You will need to adjust your times if you work on a shift other than the day shift. Also, if you think this is a little too much, let me bring to your attention that it takes less than thirty seconds to read it out loud once. That's 1 minute, 45 seconds, four times a day.

12 Powerfirmations

That's 7 minutes a day to transform your thinking, your self esteem, your self confidence and your self image. You will be saying them 12 times a day.

Also, carry the book with you. Any downtime, you can simply open up and get instant inspiration. Plus, it will remind you constantly of your Powerfirmation.

How and When to Use the Journal

The journal is included to eventually have you to write your own 'Powerfirmations'. I have two suggested usages. First, once you identify a certain subject or a single Powerfirmation that you are going to focus on during the day (and night), you can say the Powerfirmation aloud as described above and/or you can write that Powerfirmation out. I highly suggest that you do both.

When you are writing the Powerfirmation, you must repeat it to yourself, at least in your mind.

The second usage for the journal section is, eventually you will want to write your own Powerfirmations which will more directly focus on whatever you want to manifest in your life. For example, I write in mine,

"I am the greatest (and richest) author, public speaker and marketer of personal empowerment tools in the world.

Michael, you are the greatest (and richest) author, public speaker and marketer of personal empowerment tools in the world.

Michael Murphy is the greatest (and richest) author, public speaker and marketer of personal empowerment tools in the world.”

I know a guy who writes in his journal (and affirms aloud to himself) that he is the greatest golfer in the world. He admits that Tiger Woods is in fact the greatest golfer in the world. Nonetheless, he has brought his handicap down to 3 and plays in his hometown of Las Vegas with several ex-pro golfers and celebrities.

I have another friend that writes in his journal that he is ‘the richest man in the world’. Now we all know that Bill Gates currently holds that title. Nonetheless, my friend and client is worth over $100 million.

This is the goal and intent of this book. You have room to customize it even more to suit your goals, dreams and passion.

What are ‘Powerfirmations’?

‘Powerfirmations’ have been described by success experts as ‘rocket-fueled thoughts and affirmations with quantum effect and astounding results’. Some have called them, ‘affirmations on steroids’. Others have called them ‘the law of attraction at WARP SPEED.’ They are designed and constructed utilizing these tested and proven structures in order to allow the user to receive maximum benefits and total brain immersion from the Powerfirmations.

Because of their strategic and comprehensive design, Powerfirmations are the most effective tools to creating neural pathways and neural networks in the subconscious mind. They instill a success mindset faster and more effectively than any other type of affirmation or success tool.

Powerfirmations consist of the following elements.

- 1. Positive Perspective – ‘Powerfirmations’ are completely positive. They omit any negative reference at all. The classic example to illustrate this is the ‘don’t see the pink elephant’ syndrome. You have to ‘see’ the pink elephant in order to make the decision ‘not to see’ the pink elephant.

The power of the mind to create the picture of the pink elephant is far more powerful than the mind’s ability to process the intangible negative word, ‘not’. If a person makes an affirmation regarding losing weight, it is unproductive to affirm, ‘I am not overweight.’ You have to see yourself as being overweight in order to even attempt to see yourself as ‘not overweight’. Powerfirmations make a positive statement such as, ‘I see myself at the perfect weight for my height and build.’

Here is the rule: The power of visualizing anything that is suggested to the brain verbally, is far greater than the power of the brain to process the negative words, ‘not, never, don’t, can’t, won’t, etc’. Words that negate something are an intangible while the description of the thing is highly visual.

‘Powerfirmations’ are designed and constructed to be a proactive, positive force in your life. They are not designed to stop a certain behavior. Instead, the creation of new positive thoughts, patterns and behavior counteracts the force of a negative behavior. The new, positive behavior is deemed more powerful than the old behavior. Thus, the new pattern literally replaces the old pattern. The goal here is to create 'positive behaviors' which, by their sheer presence and positive force, automatically replace the negative behavior.

The illustrative perspective of this included element in Powerfirmations is the comparison to a file on a personal computer. The emotional address that is affected with a negative thought, attitude or behavior is the same address where the new thought, attitude or behavior will be embedded.

In a personal computer, two files that have the exact same name cannot reside in the same folder. Whichever file is saved to the hard drive last is the one that will ultimately reside at that address. The old file of the same name must 'move out' in order for the new file to be saved there.

Likewise, the emotional address in the subconscious mind will never become vacant. It must be occupied with something. It can be negative or positive. It must be productive or unproductive.

Powerfirmations replaces the unproductive thought or attitude with a positive productive one.

Thus, all ‘Powerfirmations’ are written in positive, affirming language.

2. Personal Perspective – The most powerful affirmations are made from the first person singular perspective of ‘I am’. However, our self-concept and self-image are also based on the second person and the third person singular perspective as well.

Have you ever addressed yourself, saying to yourself, ‘You need to get up and go to the grocery store, wash the car, change the oil in the car, go to work, go to your appointment or whatever the task is the you want or need to accomplish?’ Do you ever address yourself, in your own mind, by name? If I sense the urgency of needing to get up and take some kind of action, I might say, ‘Michael, you need to get yourself up and get going’. When you’ve done this, you’ve addressed yourself from the second person singular perspective.

The third person singular perspective, really involves how we see ourselves. Likewise, it involves how we perceive that others see us. I make the ‘Powerfirmation’, ‘Michael Murphy is an awesome man’. In doing so, I am seeing myself from the third person perspective. Your mind has the power to ‘step away from yourself’ through its imaginative abilities. That is how we gain the view of ourselves from both a second and third person perspective. We use all three perspectives of ourselves in our thought processes. Thus, Powerfirmations include all three.

Powerfirmations utilizes the three singular voices of the first person perspective.

‘I am’

‘You are’

‘He/she is’

In this personalized, ‘Powerfirmations’ book, the third person perspective is accomplished by actually inserting the reader’s first and last names in the printing and publishing of the book. In lieu of the usage of the pronouns, he/she, the reader’s name is inserted within the text of over 80 pages of life-transforming, ‘Powerfirmations’. To see one’s name inserted into empowering affirmations, enhances the experience, the emotion and effectiveness of the affirmations. Outside of your reverence for any spiritual book that you value highly, your own copy of this personalized book will be the most important book for personal growth, success and happiness that you'll ever own.

Our self-concept and self-image is based upon all three, first, second and third person, perspective. Thus, this book utilizes all three.

3. Modal Perspective – This perspective involves the three senses of sight, hearing and feeling that we prefer in our way of experiencing the world. If you have studied the findings of NLP (neuro linguistic programming) you know that each of us have a preferred and dominant perspective of how we experience the world.

I was sitting with a guy who is an awesome guitar player one evening at dinner. I was describing something to him. Being a highly visual person, I asked him, 'Do you 'see' what I'm saying?' He answered, 'No, but I hear what you're saying.'

In the study of NLP, it reveals that we have a dominant sensory perception of the way we experience the world. Powerfirmations includes wording that comprehensively includes all three modal perspectives, thus, making the Powerfirmation far more effective and a greater ‘whole brain’ exercise. Thus, ‘Powerfirmations’ utilizes all three in their design and construction. This allows total balance and immersion of the affirmation in the brain, no matter what one’s dominant modal perspective may be.

4. The ‘Now’ Perspective – All Powerfirmations are constructed to state the desired outcome ‘as if’ it is already in the person’s possession or life now. Beyond ‘fake it until you make it’, the ‘Now Perspective’ trains the subconscious mind to accept whatever it is wanting to create as literal fact, now. The subconscious mind has no interpretation of time. It also does not make a determination in what is visualized in the mind’s eye versus what is visualized with the physical eye. So it accepts whatever it is fed through the conscious mind, as fact, now.

5. Total Success Perspective – Powerfirmations are comprehensive in construction. They intend for total success in whatever they are directed towards. They are intended for complete success. Not only are they comprehensive, but Powerfirmations also leave room for exceeding the desired outcome. This is important in understanding the spiritual nature of the mind and how we are affected by powers beyond our own comprehension.

A friend of mine told me that he felt he was in love with a lady who he knew but had never dated. He was very close to her but had never been romantically involved. He asked me if he should create an affirmation that she was his girlfriend. I encouraged him to make the affirmation so that he always tags his affirmation (or even his prayer) with ‘her or someone better suited’ for him. He did it and ended up marrying some one else with whom he felt was even more than what he had dreamed of in a partner.

Powerfirmations set no limits on the outcome of their targeted desire and always allow for the ‘or better’.

6. Meditative Perspective - In the recorded versions of Powerfirmations, the background sounds consist of binaural music. Beyond the ‘Mozart for the Mind’ effect, binaural music establishes brain waves that puts the listener in a relaxed meditative state.

One the most effective programs that uses binaural music are those created by CenterPointe Research. You can find them online at www.centerpointe.com. You can also order ‘Powerfirmations’ CDs with binaural music backgrounds from www.positiveattitudes.com.

This music creates alpha brainwaves that are conducive to meditation. This enables the mind to receive the Powerfirmation much more quickly and effectively. Alpha brainwaves are slower, and higher in amplitude than most music. Their frequency ranges from 9 to 14 cycles per second.

A person who has completed a task and sits down to rest is often in an alpha state. A person who takes time out to reflect or meditate is usually in an alpha state. A person who takes a break from an intense mental activity or a highly important meeting and takes a walk, often is in an alpha state. Binaural music creates these brainwaves, thus allowing total immersion of the Powerfirmations in the subconscious mind.
